HOW TO WORK WITH THE ANGEL TAROT CARDS

Tarot is a divination tool that dates back to the 15th century. The second t in tarot is silent, so the word is pronounced “tair [rhymes with hair] oh.” Interestingly, in North America, the first syllable is emphasized, whereas in other regions, it’s the second syllable.

Tarot has touched the lives of countless individuals, giving them peace, comfort, and insight in times of joy as well as in times of challenge. It’s one of the most accurate ways to receive detailed guidance about your future and answers to your questions. Consulting tarot cards is like spending time with a dear wise relative who acknowledges both the shadows and the joys of life. However, many people are put off or frightened by the traditional images and phrases in tarot. So the Angel Tarot Cards were created to preserve the ancient divination methods, while using only positive, gentle, and life-affirming words and pictures.

The deck retains the full scope of human emotions and experiences from traditional tarot, but reinterprets the fear-based images and words to enlighten, rather than to frighten, those who use the cards.

This deck's reinterpretation brings new and vibrant symbolism that may be unfamiliar to experienced tarot practitioners. However, whether you're new to tarot or well versed in it, you'll find that the messages in this deck are uplifting, refreshing, and accurate. It endeavors to preserve tarot's traditional detailed answers, while simultaneously simplifying the interpretations so you don't have to wade through multiple pages to receive guidance.

Using Your Angel Tarot Cards

Tarot was originally two sets of cards, the Major Arcana and the Minor Arcana. (Arcana is the plural of arcanum, meaning a deep or profound secret or mystery.) The two sets were later combined into the now-traditional 78 cards.

The Major Arcana consists of 22 cards that describe major events and turning points in our lives (such as marriage, pregnancy, relationship and career changes, and personal challenges). The Major Arcana can also represent the different phases from childhood to old age.

The Minor Arcana represents more ordinary day-to-day life events and is divided into four suits or elements: fire, water, air, and earth. The Minor Arcana cards are numbered 1 (Ace) through 10, plus the court cards—a Page (card 11), a Knight (card 12), a Queen (card 13), and a King (card 14)—for each suit.

It's most common to treat the tarot as one deck of cards. However, some people prefer to use the Major Arcana separately from the Minor Arcana. As you work with the Angel Tarot Cards, you'll notice that each Major Arcana card features one of the 15 principal archangels! (A few archangels appear on more than one card, as they embody aspects of several cards.) These archangels provide strong protection and clear guidance as you travel along your spiritual path. The Major Arcana cards can also be mixed in with your other angel oracle decks to provide additional details in your readings.

The Minor Arcana consists of four suits or elements. The earth element is represented with paintings of fairies, air with unicorns, water with mermaids, and fire with friendly dragons. (Since air is traditionally represented by swords in tarot, the weapons have been replaced with the gentler imagery of unicorns whose horns are swordlike.)

Court cards can represent either a situation or a person during a reading. When the reading shows the influence of another person in your life (such as a lover), Pages and Queens represent females (or feminine men), and Knights and Kings represent males (or masculine women).

On a historical note, the Major Arcana was originally created with Justice as the 8th card and Strength as the 11th one. However, at the beginning of the 20th century, Arthur Edward Waite flipped the cards' positions when he created his famous Rider-Waite deck. His reasons for doing so were obscure, and this inversion was disruptive to the flow of the Major Arcana's spiritual-path story. So they have been restored to their original positions in the Angel Tarot Cards.

Since each individual tarot card has multiple possible meanings, I recommend that you read its description in this guidebook and let your intuition lead you to the appropriate interpretation of the reading. Trust your angels and feelings to guide you. The cards in this deck are rich with symbolism and imagery, which also provide answers and messages. Notice where your attention is drawn within each card's painting, as the illustration can hold equally important messages. This guidebook, coupled with your intuition, will help you understand the answers to all of your questions.

Reversed or upside-down cards mean that you especially need to focus upon the issue connected to that particular card. Reversals can also mean that the energy around that particular card's meaning is beginning to lessen.

Here are the steps to give an oracle-card reading to yourself or others:

Step 1: Clear Your Card Deck

Since your cards are sensitive instruments, they need to be cleared of any energy they may have absorbed from the manufacturing process. (Steps 1 and 2 only need repeating after another person touches your deck or if your readings lack clarity because the cards have become clogged with too much energy.)

To clear your cards, first hold the deck in your nondominant hand (the hand you normally don't write with), as this is the hand that receives energy. Form a fist with your other hand (this is the one that sends energy), and knock on the cards once. This clears out the old energy so that the cards are now a blank slate and ready to be imbued with your own vibration.

Step 2: Consecrate the Cards

Briefly touch each of the cards to infuse them with your personal energy. You can simply touch one of the corners of each to accomplish this. Then fan the cards out with the artwork facing you. Hold the fanned cards to your heart and think about any prayers or intentions you'd like to bestow upon your cards. For instance, you can say the following silently or aloud:

"I ask that all of my readings with these cards be accurate and specific, and bring blessings to everyone involved. Please help me stay centered in my higher self so that I may clearly hear, see, feel, and know the Divine messages that wish to come through these readings."

Ask and pray for whatever help you'd like during your readings, such as confidence, clarity, compassion, and so forth. Your cards now carry your personal vibration and intentions.

Step 3: Ask a Question

Think of a question you'd like an answer to. If you're giving a reading to someone, ask him or her to either think of or verbalize a question. Your angels and guides can hear your thoughts, so you needn't voice your queries aloud.

Step 4: Shuffle the Cards

Think of the question as you shuffle the cards, and ask the angels to help you with answers and guidance. If one or more cards “jump” out of the deck while you’re shuffling, place them to the side. They’ll be part of your reading.

As you’re shuffling, you’ll likely notice feelings, thoughts, words, or visions. This Divine guidance will help you further understand the cards you draw, so pay attention to these impressions as they come to you.

When your cards begin to clump into two distinct sections, it’s time to stop shuffling. You may also receive a feeling, thought, or vision that tells you to stop—or you may even hear the words Stop shuffling now. Trust and honor these Divine messages that are helping you with the reading. You can’t make a mistake and stop shuffling too early, as the Law of Attraction ensures that you’ll always choose the correct cards.

Step 5: Choose a Card

Pull the top card from the deck. This is the answer to your question, or guidance about which healing steps to take to help you with the issue you’ve inquired about. As you read the words on the card, notice any thoughts, additional words, feelings, or visions that come to you, as these are messages from your angels and guides that personalize the card's particular meaning for you. The picture also holds significance, so be sure to study its details. If you set aside a card (or cards) that "jumped" out of the deck while you were shuffling, carefully examine it, too.

Step 6: Consult This Guidebook

Turn to the corresponding page within this guidebook for each card. The information there will give you specific guidance to help walk you through any life changes or to take appropriate action. As you read the words, notice any thoughts or feelings that come to you, as they, too, are a personalized part of the answer.

Three-Card Spread

After completing Steps 3 and 4, pick three cards from the top of the deck. With the pictures and words facing up, lay the first card to your left, the second one in the middle, and the third to the right.

The card to your left speaks about the immediate past with respect to the situation you inquired about. The middle card reveals your question's current status and what you need to know or work on right now. And the card to the right shows your immediate future if you continue on your present path and follow the guidance in the middle card. Again, remember that you can improve your future by holding a positive outlook and following your inner guidance.

The Celtic Cross

The most popular spread for tarot cards is called the Celtic Cross, and it can be used to answer questions about any topic. This spread of ten cards reveals the basis of your situation, the challenge, the past, the present, the near future, and the likely outcome.

After completing Steps 3 and 4, lay out ten cards faceup in the order shown in the diagram on the following page.

- Card 1 represents the situation.
- Card 2 represents the current challenge affecting the issue.
- Card 3 represents the basis of the situation.
- Card 4 represents the past as it pertains to the situation.
- Card 5 represents the present.
- Card 6 represents the near future.
- Card 7 represents your power in the situation.
- Card 8 represents the effects of people around you.
- Card 9 represents your hopes or fears.
- Card 10 represents the outcome.

In the next section of this guidebook, you'll find meanings for each card. Remember that you have freewill choices about all areas of your life. You can also change the outcome of any situation through prayer, visualization, positive affirmations, and taking guided action. Your angels and guides can help alter your future for the better if you'll just ask for, and be open to, their assistance.

THE MEANINGS OF THE CARDS

This guidebook explains the general meanings for every card in the Angel Tarot Cards deck. As is traditional in tarot, the Major Arcana cards are listed first numerically, followed by the unnumbered Minor Arcana cards, which are grouped Ace through King by suit.

When you're ready to look up a card's meaning, find the corresponding page and read the interpretation and symbolism for the entry. Your inner wisdom will tell you if any of the information applies to you, or it may trigger further insights about your situation. Your intuition will offer you even more personalized messages from your angels and guides, so as you read, simultaneously pay attention to your thoughts and feelings.

THE MAJOR ARCANA

The Major Arcana consists of 22 cards describing major events and turning points in our lives. As explained earlier, these cards can also represent the different stages from childhood to old age. Each is numbered, as is traditional in tarot, and features an archangel who is associated with the card's message.

The Dreamer

The angels bring you this card because you're entering a new and exciting phase of your life. It's important that you believe in yourself and know that the benevolent Universe wants you to succeed. Now is the time for faith, and commitment to your dreams! Take any necessary steps to move forward with confidence.

Listen to your own inner guidance about following your dreams, but be open to information from others regarding the detailed steps to take. You may need additional input or guidance from an expert before proceeding, but don't let this stall your forward movement. Actively seek the insight you need.

Additional meanings of this card: Leaps of faith. Creative solutions. Unexpected opportunities. Asserting your independence. The need for optimistic approaches to challenges.

Archangel Metatron is the overseer of those who are new to the spiritual path, and to young people who are spiritually aware. He's a wonderful guide to call upon to help you overcome awkwardness and fully commit to taking action and moving forward toward the fruition of your dreams. With Metatron's help, you can retain childlike awe and wonder while making your way in the world.

1 The Magician

This card signals that it's the right time to begin new projects! If you had any doubts about your ability to manifest your dreams, leave them behind. In fact, the more self-confidence you have, the more success you experience! Fortunately, the angels can boost your inner strength if you'll call upon them for help.

Although you may not feel ready to move forward upon your path, you're actually more prepared than you realize. Your life experiences have trained you for this moment, and the opportunities available to you at this time are magical. It's not necessary to take any more classes or read any more books, which would only delay you from walking through the door that's presently open for you. Take focused action with respect to any plans you may have been preparing for.

Additional meanings of this card: No more procrastination! Magical occurrences. Concentrated efforts. Unexpected resources.

Archangel Raziel is the wizard-like angel of spiritual secrets and mysteries who will open doors of opportunity for you. He'll also speed you along the pathway of manifestation so you'll enjoy success much more quickly than seems logically possible.

2 The High Priestess

You drew this card because the answers you seek lie in your feelings and emotions. Trust your intuition and the power of your natural psychic abilities! Also, pay attention to your dreams and any intuitive messages you receive, as they're accurately guiding you.

There's no need to race into action right now, however. Instead, take time to gain more insight, since things may not be as they appear on the surface. Withdraw from the noise of daily life and ask for guidance from your angels and guides. Everything you need to know will be revealed to you in time; just have patience.

Additional meanings of this card: Silence is golden. Study spiritual topics. Keep your dreams and desires to yourself. Learn from emotional situations.

Archangel Haniel is the goddess-like angel of grace and feminine spirituality (such as intuition and clairvoyance). Like a true high priestess, Haniel will act as your spiritual teacher and advisor to aid you in discerning which feelings and ideas to follow as trustworthy guidance. Call upon Haniel to increase your clarity in connecting with the angels.

3 The Empress

Your creativity and hard work are bringing you great rewards, according to this card. You have the Midas touch right now, so anything you nurture and give your loving attention to will flourish. Marriage, children, and issues involving motherhood and creativity are positively affected now. Whether you're trying to give birth to a child, nurture life into plants or pets, or help a new project or business to grow, your creative endeavors will be successful.

Enjoy the beautiful things in life, knowing that you deserve to be wonderfully provided for. Take excellent care of your body with massage; yoga; or anything that makes you feel healthy, vibrant, and luxurious.

Additional meanings of this card: Abundance. Spending time in nature. Indulging in creative and artistic projects. Loving and nurturing yourself or others. A time of excellent emotional or physical health.

Archangel Gabriel is the messenger angel who guides and supports expectant and adoptive parents—as well as those involved in “newborn” creative projects. Call upon Gabriel to inspire your creative ideas and give you the courage and the opportunities to express them.

The Emperor

It's important to cultivate logic, discipline, and order right now. This card signifies that although your dreams are valid and sound, they still need guidelines and organization so that they can manifest properly. Create a detailed plan for how you'll proceed, and maintain kind but authoritative control over how that plan is implemented.

Feel empowered to take a leadership role in your career and any projects you're working on. Structure and order are your friends as you move from the preparation stage into the execution of your plans. Believe in your ability to be a positive and diplomatic leader. Get organized so that you can be more effective.

Additional meanings of this card: The desire to be a success. Stability. Making wise choices. Security. Government agencies. Law enforcement. The respect of others. Fatherhood.

Archangel Michael is the angel of strength and protection who oversees everyone's life purpose. Call upon Michael for courage and strength as you make important and necessary life changes. He can also help you focus your logical mind and left-brain talents upon your projects.

5 Unity

Working in groups enriches you right now. You drew this card because it's time for you to expand your circle of friends or join a group. For example, you may want to enroll in school or become part of a spiritual organization. This is also an optimal time to make friends with supportive new people who have integrity and a strong moral compass.

It's also time to question and review any rules, restrictions, or limited beliefs that have been placed around your current situation (by you or by others) to make sure that they're fair to everyone involved. This can lift any previous blocks to the manifestation of your goals.

Additional meanings of this card: Experts or mentors. The search for meaning in life. Having faith in a group of people. Schools and spiritual institutions.

Sandalphon is the archangel who delivers prayers from Earth to heaven. Call upon him to increase your faith and your commitment to your dreams and goals.

6 The Lovers

This card signals that a significant relationship is on your mind. It may be romantic in nature, or it may be an intimate but platonic friendship. Communication is key right now, and it's important to develop trust within the relationship. You can safely share your feelings with someone close to you.

It's also time to make an important decision about your life. The conclusions you reach now greatly influence your future, so it's important to weigh your options carefully. Make sure your choices are thoroughly considered and that you're able to act upon them.

Additional meanings of this card: The need for balance. A return to good health. Marriage and weddings.

Archangel Raphael, in addition to being the angel of health and traveling, is the patron of soul mates. Raphael can help with significant relationships, including those of romance, friendship, business, and family. He can also help you manifest the soul-mate partnership of your dreams.

7 The Chariot

Congratulations! This card means you've successfully balanced a recently challenging situation! Your ability to see both sides, take action, and make decisions has garnered you approval, respect, and gratitude. So, bask in the joy of what you've accomplished!

Stay calm and grounded, and be clear about what you're trying to achieve. It's important to show self-control, determination, and the willingness to go the distance at this time. Exercise control firmly—but kindly—with other people.

Additional meanings of this card: Self-discipline. Sheer willpower. A great leap forward. A promotion or award. Travel. Modes of transportation.

Archangel Metatron can increase your motivation and energy levels so that you'll accomplish your priorities. Metatron uses a sacred geometric shape called a "Merkaba" or "Metatron's Cube" to warp time, which enables you to instantly manifest your dreams into reality.

8 Justice

This card comes to you because you're trying to make a decision. The angels guide you to wise and carefully considered decisions, with fairness extended toward everyone involved (including yourself). If you can't be objective in this matter, seek out someone who can act as an arbitrator.

This card also means that a decision will be made in your favor. If you're currently in a legal dispute, it will turn out positively for you. Furthermore, it's important to thoroughly review legal documents or contracts before signing them.

Additional meanings of this card: Doing what's right. Taking responsibility for your actions. Resisting injustice. Standing up for your beliefs. Issuing or accepting an apology.

Raguel is the archangel who creates harmony within relationships, and who can help you make decisions that involve other people. Call upon Raguel to bring about peace between you and others.

9 The Hermit

This card signals that you'd benefit from spending time alone, listening to your inner voice. Meditation is essential, as the path to enlightenment is an inner journey. Be silent and experience the joy that comes from seeking the truth of your own heart. Learn to feel comfortable in your own company. After all, there's a difference between being alone and being lonely.

This card also signifies spiritual teaching, so it can mean that you have wisdom to impart to others, or that perhaps it's time for you to find a spiritual teacher. Sharing wisdom is part of your spiritual journey, especially right now.

Additional meanings of this card: Good advice. Finding or becoming a mentor. Self-discovery. Reevaluation of plans. Going on a spiritual quest.

Archangel Raziel offers sage advice to spiritual seekers, including guidance about esoteric concepts, interpretation of your sleeping dreams, and past-life memories. Call upon Raziel to help you find the richness that comes from meditation and spending time alone in contemplation.

10 The Wheel

The angels sent you this card because of positive changes occurring in your life. Expect and enjoy beneficial new opportunities as they present themselves. This is an optimal time to make big and small changes. Take the leap with the knowledge that everything will work well for you.

Old blocks are lifting, and everything now moves forward quickly. If recent events shook your faith, you'll now see how they were actually positive for you. Rapid advancement is likely now.

Additional meanings of this card: Good luck. A happy accident. Balanced karma. A miracle. A twist of fate. Destiny.

Archangel Michael is the supreme protecting angel who walks beside you through changes, giving you courage, strength, and self-confidence. Call upon Michael whenever you'd like specific guidance about your next step, especially if it's connected to your life purpose or spiritual path.

11 Strength

This card comes to you because you need to know that you're stronger than you realize. You can definitely handle your current situation. However, instead of "powering through it," you're better off with an approach of compassion, kindness, and gentleness. The strength that this situation calls for comes from the softness of a spiritual core.

Your strength and effectiveness increase as you believe in yourself and your ability to grow from the experiences you have in life. Look upon challenges as opportunities to learn and apply your knowledge and magical touch.

Additional meanings of this card: Patience. Forgiveness. The courage of your convictions. Using honey instead of vinegar.

Archangel Ariel is the angel of the spirit of nature. Because Ariel is so close to the earth, she helps with day-to-day material needs of home, food, clothing, and so forth. Call upon Ariel for strength and support if you're worried about finances or desperate times.

12 Awakening

It's time to review your plans, according to this card, and look at things from a new perspective. Ask yourself: is it possible that a different approach would work better? Although it may feel like events have come to a standstill, this is temporary. So, make use of the extra time you've been given to rethink your strategies.

You may need to step outside of the norm and the mainstream right now and embrace your unique and eclectic beliefs or attitudes. It's also a good moment to be generous with your time, attention, and gifts. This "tithing" is returned by the Universe manyfold to you!

Additional meanings of this card: Epiphanies. Selflessness. Unexpected life changes. The need for patience. The power that lies in being oneself. Unusual solutions.

Archangel Gabriel is the angel who helps people become Divine messengers of love. When you speak, think, and act from a place of love, others are irresistibly drawn to you.

13 Release

This card signifies that it's time to move on because this project or phase of your life is now complete. There's no benefit in remaining in this situation. Instead, shake off the old and welcome the new! You may experience a sense of relief at this ending, or there may be some sadness. Either way, it's time to leave that which you've outgrown.

Take your time in adjusting to this change in your life. It's not necessary to rush ahead. Be kind to yourself during this period of transition, and seek the support of friends and family.

Additional meanings of this card: Inevitable positive changes. Facing your fears. Relationship transitions. Spiritual evolution.

Archangel Azrael heals your heart when changes and losses bring about grieving. Call upon Azrael to help you move forward fearlessly and let go of the past.

14 Balance

The angels are cautioning against making impulsive decisions or moves right now. Instead, take the path of moderation and balance in this situation. You'll experience better results by reevaluating your current circumstances and changing your approach. If you acted impulsively in the past, you can heal and rectify things. And if you're considering making dramatic life changes, then this card asks you to approach those changes slowly and methodically.

This card encourages you to work cooperatively with others, and to see things from their point of view. Compassion and kindness are keys to successfully manifesting your dreams. Forgiveness also brings healing, which allows for new beginnings.

Additional meanings of this card: Keeping a moderate pace. Cooperation and blended ideas. Self-restraint. Finding the balance between action and contemplation. Waiting for better timing.

Archangel Zadkiel helps you remember who you are in terms of your true spiritual heritage as a child of God. Call upon Zadkiel to increase your self-esteem and feelings of self-worth and deservedness.

15 Ego

The angels want you to know that the entrapment you're feeling isn't real. This card indicates that a lot of your feelings are stemming from anxieties that aren't based in reality. So, give your fears to God and the angels, and ask for their help in adopting a more positive perspective on this situation.

This card also indicates that you're focused upon the material things in life. Heaven acknowledges that you, like everyone, have physical needs. However, your attention to the accumulation of possessions is out of balance. Reassess why you want to acquire these items. Perhaps you're trying to fill an emotional void, which material objects could never do. What you're really craving is inner peace through a spiritual path.

Additional meanings of this card: Refusal to face the truth or to take personal responsibility for the situation. Addictions. Temptations. Dependency. Excessive debt.

Jophiel is the archangel who helps us experience beautiful emotions and think beautiful thoughts. Call upon Jophiel whenever you need a boost in how you feel about yourself, your life, and the world.

16 Life Experience

You drew this card because a recent event has been a wake-up call for you to make some life changes. This may be a new revelation or something you've known but have been procrastinating about. Now you've realized that this situation can't be ignored and action is necessary.

This is a moment both of freedom and awakening. The way you see yourself and the world has forever changed, bringing you growth and encouraging you to spread your wings. Allow these new insights to motivate you to embrace the path of your heart's true desires and your intuition.

Additional meanings of this card: Liberation. Suddenly seeing the truth. Rapid, inevitable change. Time running out.

Archangel Chamuel can help you find whatever you're seeking, including right relationships and a Divinely guided career. Call upon Chamuel and then follow your intuition, which is the way this angel speaks to you.

17 The Star

Go ahead: wish upon a star! The angels say you have every reason to feel hope and happy expectation! Believe in your dreams; and look to your future with optimism, excitement, and confidence. Challenging times are now behind you, and brighter times are ahead.

Make your plans with the long view in mind. Now is the time to envision your life the way you want it to be and to take action in that direction. The expectations you create for yourself are planted in fertile soil. Trust and follow your intuition, as it's right on target.

Additional meanings of this card: Faith. A sense of purpose. A prosperous new beginning. Being on the right path.

All Artwork by Steve A. Roberts

An artist of vision and technique, Steve A. Roberts is self-taught. This he did by studying the works of his childhood heroes—legendary fantasy artists such as Frank Frazetta and the Brothers Hildebrandt. Steve received his only formal training when he sat in on classes at the Ringling School of Art.

Born in central Florida in a little town called Palmetto, a stone's throw from the Gulf of Mexico, he began drawing, like most artists, as a young child. Later, he spent 12 years in Alaska, a place that had always stirred his imagination. In that time, Steve drove a taxi in Anchorage, worked construction, built a log cabin on 40 acres, and painted the wonders of this fairy-tale land. Meanwhile, his work was receiving more and more attention. Returning to Florida, Steve started his company, Fantasy Graphics. He is now being recognized as one of the most talented new artists in the field of fantasy illustration.
