INTRODUCTION

Hail and Welcome! It is not by chance that you now possess this deck. You are being urged to awaken the Wise One; the Seer and Healer within. After hundreds of years of persecution, the "Old Religion" has resurfaced; the Craft of the Wise is finally ready to be reclaimed.

Our witchy ancestors had an intimate working knowledge of the world around them; transposing the magic of the sun, moon, seasons, elements, directions, plants, and herbs into the wisdom of the Craft, which they depended on for survival. Spirits, rituals and ceremonies were part of a Witch's activity, to bring about balance between the worlds of spirit and the physical realm. These Witches, Seers, Oracles, and Shamans helped royalty and military leaders win battles, avoid famines, and save lives via their abilities to heal and foretell the future. Documentation reveals nothing but betrayal, abandonment, or death for these wisdom keepers. A heavy price for helping others! Even now many Witches still live in the broom closet, fearing ridicule, persecution, and banishment.

The story of the Witch is largely one of oppression, conflict, and denial. Many religious orders feared the wisdom of the Witches, not because they did not understand, but because they absolutely knew how powerful a Witch's insight was. Natural magic harnesses the majesty of the soul. Sadly in humankind's battle for power, these wise ones became victims of control. Fear of these natural healers was deliberately imposed upon the masses, to suppress empowerment, and thus persecution of Witches became widespread across the Europe and beyond, for centuries. Witches, who were once sought after, became feared for their wisdom, knowledge of herbs, and healing powers, and their ability to connect with nature and communicate with animals.

Since then, the Witch has been rather mockingly personified, particularly in the Hollywood films, like The Wizard of Oz. Truth is, Witches are everywhere. It could be someone just like you, who has always been drawn to nature, who hears the whispers of the ancestors through the breeze, who welcomes the rains, glorifies the heat of the sun, and connects with the nourishment of the earth. The Witch's heart sings at the mere notion of magic, has an affinity with the ways of natural healing, and believes in another world of mystical beings. This is the way of the Witch—a wonderful world of magic and connection with the natural world. A Witch is a healer, a counsellor, and ambassador for the workings of nature, and takes a responsible attitude in guardianship for our beloved planet, and those who reside on it, ever minding the Three Fold Law.

The Witches' Wisdom oracle cards awaken wisdom that lives within us. These cards can be used by a seasoned Witch or one who is dabbling in the ancient path of the wise. For the first time all the magical tools of the Witch, in the form of this deck, are available to guide and assist you. Each card is a magical avenue to draw upon ancient wisdom that is still relevant today for the modern Witch.

*Brightest Blessings,
Barbara and Flavia Blessed Be.*

HOW TO USE

Do you sense anticipation at the prospect of re-engaging with the wisdoms of the Old Ways? Each card in this deck will speak to you of methods, spells, and magic that connects you with the elements, mystical realms, and spirit to bring about a more powerful sense of positivity and change in your life and in the lives of those around you. This deck puts at your fingertips a vast array of divination tools, elements, festivals, ceremonies, and rituals that allow you access to the source of this ancient craft. You can gain wisdom by consulting forty-eight different portals which span a range of methods, each one helping you to connect to the Witch's wisdom within.

Spend time out in nature, listening and learning by observing everything around you. Become your own interpreter of the cards as wisdom seeks you out. It's a good idea to create a sacred space in which you can consult the Witch's wisdom. The simplest way is to first cleanse the room you are in. One way to do this is by burning incense or lighting a candle and dedicating the space for the work you are about to undertake.

Sit comfortably and shuffle the deck. It is important to clearly state what you would like to be enlightened about. For example:

- I wish to connect to a past life that can help me with work
- I wish to resolve an issue with a family member
- I need help as to where I should be investing my energy

When you feel ready, select a card and place it in front of you, picture side up. Take time to absorb the words and image then turn to the booklet for deeper insights.

SAMPLE SPREADS

SINGLE CARD READING

Shuffle the deck repeatedly as you call on your guides (be they ancestors, spirit guides, or even divine energy) to help you with a specific situation. You can do this aloud or in your mind, but be sure to be as specific and as clear as you can in your request. This could be a matter relating to relationships, health, or even something like whether venturing out in the coming days is a good idea. Then, using your intuition, pull a single card from the deck. Now take the book and find the corresponding pages—therein lies your answer.

THREE CARD SPREAD

Shuffle the deck and simultaneously ask your guides to help you receive an accurate reading. Then, ask for the truth to be revealed in regard to any situation in which you'd like more information. Stop shuffling whenever you feel ready. Take the top card from the deck and place it face-up in front of you. Take the next card from the top of the deck, and lay this face-up, to the right of the first card. Finally, take a third card from the top of the deck and place this one to the right of the second card, again face-up. Using the book, you can read the messages each card holds for this reading. As you are doing a reading for guidance on a particular matter, you can focus more on the "Witches' Wisdom" which is the main reading, rather than the "revelation" (description of the tool, element, season, or ritual) itself, which appears at the bottom of each entry in the book.

PENTAGRAM SPREAD

The pentagram is a source of illumination, its five points representing Earth, Air, Fire, Water, and Spirit. Six cards are drawn for this reading (please see diagram below), as follows:

1 Present: Depicting the person for whom the reading is being done. Shuffling the deck face-up, they select one card that most represents them in this moment, and place it in centre of the spread. The cards that follow are now selected when shuffled face-down. 2 Earth: Keeping Grounded This card indicates the overall issues surrounding the person in question. What that has made the situation stagnant? 3 Air: Winds of Influence This card signifies the influence of others. Are there people providing a positive influence, or are they dragging the person down with negative messages? 4 Fire: Internal Cleanser This card indicates internal conflicts at play, showing the person's self-doubts and apprehensions. 5 Water: Intuition This is where the person will discover what can they learn from this situation and how they can adapt circumstances to meet needs and goals. 6 Spirit: The Whole Self This is what the other cards are leading up to; the culmination of the journey. This card shows how will things be resolved if the person remains on their present path.

CARD MESSAGES

AIR
IMAGINATION

*Don't be afraid, no need for fright.
Imagination's sacred sight.
Time to believe, for tis the key.
Unleash your gift, trust what you see.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

The power of Air sweeps through your imagination, urging you to believe what you see, for you have been blessed with Second Sight. Strange shapes in the sky, vivid colours as you close your eyes, sighting repetitive signs and symbols all confirm your natural clairvoyance. A canny gift for a Witch, indeed! So disregard your doubts about your ability of "clear seeing", for these fears blow you off course. Instead, stand firm in the eye of the storm and know that your visions are valid. For your imagination is the gateway to real magic that beckons a world you have been longing to discover. Call upon the Spirits of the Air to enhance your creativity and meditation abilities and to stimulate your mind as you light incense, a yellow candle, and face the direction of East. This is a great time for fertility as Air blows you in the direction of new beginnings. So throw caution to the wind and watch as your visions manifest into reality.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Work with the element of Air to still the mind. Meditate daily. Start a new project. Trust your Second Sight. Write, paint, or draw. Get outside, hear the wind, take long walks, or sky dive!

AIR REVEALED

As the dawn awakes in the East, Air calls to us to breathe in this sacred element as a focus of communication, movement and knowledge. Air is the element of new life and possibilities. Air, reflected through the four winds, carries our thoughts and dreams, binding them together as one force of visualisation and focus.

ALTAR DEDICATION

*Commitment's not a dirty word.
Achievements focused, goals are spurred.
Choose one path to lead the way.
With dedication, you'll not stray.
This magic is worked, with harm to none,
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Now is the time to gather all the tools you have obtained along your way, including that which you have learned and experienced, and bring them to the table. For you have now the vital ingredients you need to bring about the magic you require. The sacred space that is the Altar has presented itself to you. So now is the time for you to realise where your allegiance truly lies. Remove any tendencies for favouring flaky indecision so that you can bare your soul in truth and dedication to that which flows through your veins and sings strong in your heart. Decide upon your path carefully and wisely, and make a full commitment to that which you choose. Then follow through by means of dedication to your choice. Create an altar, offer up prayers and thanksgiving to strengthen your relationship with your allies.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

You've been dabbling in various lifestyle choices. Choose one that will serve you well, and stick to it. Dedicate in your house or garden, an altar to that with which you are spiritually aligned. Focus will bring desired results.

ALTAR REVEALED

Ancient cultures have used altars in their temples and sacred spaces since the dawn of time. This sacred space contains and holds the magic activity of ourselves and the deities using our tools and ingredients for spellcasting, candle magic, and consecration. The altar is a focus for ritual, sacred purpose, and intent in all things.

ANCESTORS REMEMBRANCE

*Ancestors of blood and bone, from Earth you have to Spirit flown.
Ancestral lines now heal at last,
and break free from chains of the past.
This magic is worked, with harm to none,
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

The obstacles you are experiencing are connected to the past. You're holding on way too tightly. Now is the right time to finally let go. Remembering those who have walked before you, and understanding their ways will help you to release any hurts and pains. Healing ancestral lines will enable you to break free and step into the freedom your soul yearns for, to be whole and complete. Remembrance asks you to honour the ancestors, for those who lived their lives trusting in, recognizing, and interacting with the spirits of the land and living in accordance with the magical law of nature. Call upon their wisdom to assist you in awakening to the magic of the Old Ways, of the days when nature was respected and the natural balance in all things was ensured. Remember too who you are and where you have come from, and honour yourself for never giving up, as you walk in the footsteps of the ancestors.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

You have a strong ancestral lineage. Never forget who's played a big part in your life. Light a candle in remembrance of the ancestors. Someone from your past turns up. You are watched over by a deceased loved one. Resolve a past life issue.

ANCESTORS REVEALED

You are the dreams and visions that the ancestors held. You are the future of what they worked toward. The memory of our ancestors will never die if we hold their legacy alive within our birthright, and heal the ancestral lineage that we are responsible for. Discover and learn who you have come from and be proud to carry on in their name.

ATHAME BOUNDARIES

*Get to the point and draw the line.
Athame appears as a warning sign.
Attention claimed, now cut those ties.
Focus returned, now you shall rise.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Your intentions have been rather hazy of late. Nor are you giving the right signals about who and what you are. In fact, do you actually even know who you are at this very moment? It's time to finally focus and get to the point! You cannot expect to be taken seriously if you have not set your boundaries. For by not doing so, you will find that others cross the line by taking advantage of you, not respecting either your space or you! Your natural energy is being drained, drawing your attention unnecessarily to others instead of what is really important. Athame offers to cut ties with those who no longer serve your highest purpose. This doesn't necessarily mean that you will banish these people from your life, only that you won't be taking on their energetic demands, which are drawing you away from your true purpose. Mentally ask the power of Athame to cut these cords, in perfect love and perfect trust, and your vitality and focus will return.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

You are being diverted from your path. Focus on what is truly important. Honour your beliefs and yourself. Don't give into the superficial demands of others. Set clear boundaries. You would benefit from energy healing.

ATHAME REVEALED

The Athame is used for the ritual purpose of casting a circle, cutting ties, directing energy, or to cut and reseal a door in a ritual circle. It is one of the four elemental magical tools used in traditional Witchcraft. It represents the element of Fire and is the masculine principle evoking the act of procreation in conjunction with the chalice.

BELTANE FERTILITY

*The God sows deep his natural seed.
Impregnates Goddess. Nature's need.
And from this union will come birth.
Yours to share across this Earth.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

The energy of the cross quarter festival, Beltane, surrounds you. This celebrates the God impregnating the Goddess, who in Mother form bursts forth growth from Spring into Summer. Like the Goddess of Nature at this time, you are nearly in full bloom. The tiny seeds of creativity you planted earlier have developed; their shoots have sprung and are ready to blossom. This marks a very fertile time for you. A new idea or a project can now be fulfilled; your creative power is stirring within, ready to be birthed. Success will follow as you draw upon the gifts that the element of Fire offers, whose rites are honoured throughout the festival of Beltane. Passion, desire, confidence and strength accompany you as you take appropriate action towards your dreams and goals.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Explore your sexuality. Your ideas are coming to fruition. Do what you feel passionate about. Taking action will bring about desired results. Participate in a Firewalk. Time to celebrate!

BELTANE REVEALED

Beltane, also known as May Day, is celebrated on the first of May. The feast honours the Green Man and Marian, his May Queen, in sacred union. Couples come together to celebrate this fire festival with songs, dancing around the maypole, and sacred union of handfasting and holy fires.

BOOK OF SHADOWS SECRET

*That which you know, is for you alone.
Ne'er to be shared, tis yours to own.
Keep thy knowledge within your tower.
Reveal the secret when full in power.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

The knowledge you possess runs deeper than you think. You have the information you need to move forward. Allow the answers to shine forth and you will gain all the knowledge you need to help you on your journey. You are the Wise One, the Wisdom Keeper, and a Book of Shadows opens its pages to you as an invitation. You must document the secrets that you hold in your heart. Your thoughts, dreams, and ideas will flow as you unlock every intimate detail, as you put quill to parchment. Your wise words are the key to unlocking that which has been preventing you from walking your true path in its fullest capacity. This Book of Shadows is all you can trust at this time. It shall hold only that which is your truth, including your "magical name", never to share with others.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Play your cards close to your chest. Someone wishes to claim your ideas as their own. Be a trustworthy friend. Document your ideas, spells, and recipes in your Book of Shadows. Trust in it.

BOOK OF SHADOWS REVEALED

From ancient hieroglyphs and scrolls containing magical rituals and spells, was birthed the Grimoire, known now as the Book of Shadows. This sacred journal holds your intentions and beliefs as a practicing Witch. It contains the secrets of rituals, spells, herbs, incenses, oils, the Wheel of the Year, and the Sabbats.

BROOMSTICK CLEARANCE

*Give a tickle and flick with a helpful broom.
Let's clear some space and make some room.*

Open windows, let air in.

Clear the way, around, within.

This magic is worked, with harm to none.

So mote it be. There, it is done.

WITCHES' WISDOM

You are in urgent need to create space for the energies you are calling upon in order for them to take their rightful place. You wonder why your spellwork has dimmed, why all you have asked for has not yet been made manifest. The answer is that the stench of clutter surrounds you. It's time for a clearing, for magic needs space in order to be birthed. So get rid of all that you no longer need and is not aligned with who you are today. Clean up, sort out the trash, donate to charity, rearrange furniture, and create some sacred space so you can work, feel at peace, and connected. Call upon your trusted friend Broomstick to move widdershins as it sweeps away the unnecessary contents of your mind, removing the constant internal chatter that has prevented you from hearing the voice of Spirit clearly. Out with the old and in with the new—that's the way the Witches do!

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Stale energies are preventing you from receiving and moving forward. Time for a spring cleaning! Only keep around you that which makes you feel positive. Meditate and pray to clear your mind. Clean up your act. Purify your thoughts and actions.

BROOMSTICK REVEALED

The Broomstick, or Besom, is a magical tool used to sweep away negative energy from the ritual space, and to sweep in positive energy before the ritual. Placed upright at the front door or by the hearth, it protects those who live within the home. Used in handfasting, the couple hold hands and jump over the broomstick, bestowing fertility.

CANDLES MAGIC

*Magic comes from deep within.
Ignite the flame, let it begin.
Desires in mind, don't be the fool.
Focus as you choose your tool.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Your desire to work as a magical practitioner is acknowledged as Candles illuminate the path of the wise for you. The spark of inner wisdom calls you to invoke the Divine, for true magic begins with your desire to make something happen. Time for a little candle magic! As you gaze into the sacred flame you are reminded of your true connection to the Source, for your soul spark is immortal. Never doubt your abilities of focus, willpower, and visualisation, for in doing so you are disregarding the powers of the world that live beyond that which is seen. Remember, all is magic and illusion. This sacred act of candle magic has been with you since your very first birthday. As you blew out the flickering flame before you and made a wish, you worked with the three principals of magic that make dreams come true. Belief in your tools, as well as yourself, is key as you keep in mind the Three Fold Law when performing any magic ritual.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

This is a magical time for you. Your manifesting abilities are strong. Keep your thoughts and focus positive. Use candles at home, at bath time, and in sacred ceremony. Study candle colours for healing and magical purposes. Keep shining brightly.

CANDLES REVEALED

Since Roman times, candle magic has been used for spells, prayers, focus, and honouring of the god and goddess. Spell casting is sympathetic magic and by using a candle, you can focus your intent or will to make manifest that which you desire. Coloured candles invoke different spells by combining their vibrations with intention.

CAULDRON CONTAINMENT

*Hubble, bubble's not the way.
Simmer softly, await the day.
Keep within that which you know.
Time will come for you to show.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Whilst you are bubbling over with anticipation to share with the world, you are advised to keep a lid on things. For the time to come out is not yet right. That which you hold within is to be contained for a while longer. So for now just allow all that you know and feel, to simmer gently. Boiling over will not serve you and you just may get your fingers burnt. Instead, Cauldron asks that you use this as a time for nurturing and preparation. The feast is promised, although newly acquired ingredients that have not yet been presented to you need to first be stirred into the pot. Only when you add these fresh additions will you be ready. Be patient, for the signal to move forward will appear in good time. Only then my dear can you serve up that which the world will be ready and willing to accept.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

There is important information missing. Someone is hiding something from you. Don't make your move until you have all the details. Harness and nurture your natural gifts. The world is not ready for what you have to offer. Wait until the time is right.

CAULDRON REVEALED

The Cauldron represents the sacred womb of the Mother Goddess. It is used as a ritual vessel for the element of Water, brewing potions and for spell casting. Papers of regrets, letters to the ancestors and burnt offerings are placed within the cauldron in ritual and ceremony. Transformation, rebirth, fertility, and femininity flow from the Western Quarter.

CHALICE FULFILMENT

*You seek it here, you seek it there.
You're sure you have searched everywhere.
Look no further than inside.
It's here the magic doth reside.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

You have a deep thirst to connect with the magic of the "Old Ways". The overflowing desire to remember and awaken runs through your veins and speaks to your very soul. Your quest has led you to scour the pages of books in order to learn of ritual, spells, properties of herbs, and the traditional ways of yester-year. The idea of covens, to be initiated into the power of a group of like-hearted others, stirs your interest. And yet, your natural, solitary side encourages you to step away from the views and opinions of others, to take your own path towards that which you seek. Drink from the Chalice that stands before you, for your search is almost over. Instead of seeking all that you require elsewhere, Chalice shows you that the fulfilment you seek is, and has always been, inside you. You are the one true vessel that is waiting to be filled. Now drink!

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Your search is a form of procrastination. Be open to Spirit and follow your intuition. You're nearly there, don't quit! Something that has been missing will turn up. You will receive an unexpected visitor. Work with the element of water. Check in with your emotions. Drink more water.

CHALICE REVEALED

The Chalice represents Water and is one of the four elemental tools that a Witch uses. A symbol of unity of the coven, it is passed around the circle to drink of blessed water or wine during ritual. Associated with the moon and the goddess, the name "Chalice" stems back to the legend of the Holy Grail, but goblets have been used in ritual for thousands of years.

CLOAK CONCEALMENT

*Release all fears and any doubt.
No longer hide, you must come out!
Slip off the cloak, commit, stand proud.
A Witch revealed, walk from the crowd.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

You have been hiding in the shadows, too afraid to reveal your true nature and beliefs. Your cloak-and-dagger routine can conceal you no longer, for you are being called to come out of the broom closet and stand proud. When you step into alignment with the Witch within, the ancestors will support you fully. Be safe in the knowledge that no longer can you be persecuted, in the physical sense. The days of drowning, stoning, and burning are long gone. Be strong and rise above any judgements. Remember that any hurtful words directed at you will only damage the perpetrator. For what anyone gives out comes right back to them. Instead, embrace all that you are, and shine brightly as you declare to the world your truth. Allow your inner wisdom to accompany you as you take those first brave steps of authenticity to what will ultimately be the freedom to live your life, as the real you.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Fear of persecution stems from a past life. A challenge will be overcome as you face it head on. Don't buy into the opinions of others. Someone is hiding something from you. The missing part of the jigsaw will be revealed soon.

CLOAK REVEALED

Ceremonial clothing, worn in rituals throughout the ancient lands and temples, has empowered and invoked magical effects for thousands of years. Ritual clothing evokes mystery and drama, concealing the wearer from the views of the uninitiated. It is advisable to only use your magical clothing for rituals in order to contain your power and energy.

EARTH GROUNDING

*A shaky Witch just will not do,
Strength is required to start anew.
The element to call is Earth. C onnect, restore, and then re-birth.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Are the foundations you stand upon strong enough to support you? You have been on rather shaky ground lately and your confidence has been knocked. Your head has been in the clouds, and your spellwork and wishes do not seem to be coming to fruition. It is the element of Earth that must be called upon right now, for it offers you the nurturing and support you need at this time. The Earth is solid, firm, and will give you the grounding required to bring about the results you desire. The Earth is fertile and stable and is associated with the Goddess of birth, life, death, and rebirth. Give yourself some time to go into nature and allow the Earth to restore you. Draw upon her gifts that are steeped in magic and mystery, as you rest and recharge under her protection. Soon you shall have all the endurance and strength that you require in order to move forward.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Connection with the element of Earth is required to bring substance to your spellwork. Spend time outside, barefooted and getting your hands dirty. Take up gardening. Hug or sit beneath a favourite tree. Engage in a project that requires solid groundwork.

EARTH REVEALED

The Pentacle represents the Earth element. This element forms the blood and bones of our physical bodies and so from the Earth we come, and will one day return. When we connect with the element of Earth we manifest the growth of physical matter and fertility, grounding, and stability. Security, shelter, and food are gifted from the Earth, which is our foundation, our mother.

FAMILIAR GUARDIAN

*A bark, meow, squawk, or song, look who appears, tis never wrong.
Lighten you load, call to your side your new best friend, your familiar guide.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

A familiar has turned up to assure you that you are never alone. For whether your path is an easy one or a struggle right now, you have a very real guardian and helper that is waiting to be called upon through the Ether. Once you have asked for assistance in your magical work, use your diligence to be aware of the form that your assistance takes. You may notice a cat hanging around your back door, or you may be greeted by the tapping of a bird on your window. Your guardian may work with you through the form of a Spirit Animal Guide. Look to an animal that you have always felt affinity with. Notice the representation of animals, including mythical and mystical, that you may have within your home, through books, paintings, figurines, or prints. For they will reveal to you the familiar who has accompanied you through the mists of time and will never leave your side, not even for a moment.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Do not be afraid to ask for assistance. You have a strong bond with a trusted animal. Call upon your familiar. Look for signs in the animals that come into contact with you. Study the meanings of different animal medicine (energy). Help is at hand.

FAMILIAR REVEALED

Folklore reveals that supernatural beings, called familiars, helped and supported Witches in their day-to-day lives. Known as animal guides or spirit helpers, they protect and guard their human companions through thick and thin. These spirit guardians can come in many different forms, from four legged, winged ones to mythical and magical beings.

FIRE PASSION

*Now call upon the spirit of Fire, to invoke new courage and all you desire.
Its strength will ravish fears and plight,
and ignite the flame of passion tonight.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Your sparkle has waned and something is missing. Whether it is our lust for life, belief in yourself, or motivation, the element of Fire is waiting to spice things up! Witches have a profound affinity with this element, for they recognise the power of a flame through spellwork and connection with the ancestors. The magic of Fire invokes lust, passion, attraction, and love. You are being encouraged to cast aside your fear of the flame and bring warmth into your inner world. Fire waits to be acknowledged and worked with by you. Invite Fire into your life and allow the strength of its energy to purify and cleanse any doubts and worries that have clouded your view. Fire will fuel you to be able to walk in your true light with full might, vitality, and vigour as you reclaim your power.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Work with the element of Fire to eliminate negative thoughts and behaviours. Imagine etheric flames raging and consuming any darkness that lies within. Your fear of fire stems from a past life. Your renewed passion invokes the love you have been waiting for.

FIRE REVEALED

Since time began the sun, the spark of life has ignited our inner fire and passion. Fire deities such as Belenos and Brigid have imbued our courage and empowered us to focus on the energy of fire. The athame or sword represents the Fire element. Lighting a candle is the physical representation of fire and can be seen through the veil.

HANDEASTING UNION

*Let's celebrate, dance, and sing, for Lord and Lady, Queen and King.
Unite together, hearts are won,
in sacred marriage, bound as one.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

A coming together, in whatever form, is celebrated when handfasting shows up. Handfasting comes as a blessed omen, for it indicates the union of yourself and your beloved. Love is in the air, so get ready to tie the knot and jump over the broomstick, as tradition dictates. Union announces a betrothal in acknowledgement of your readiness to make a sacred commitment to yourself; to promise to love, cherish and honour all of who you are and to never betray yourself in favour of another, including what you hold dear or believe. Union also declares your marriage to Spirit, and invites you to humbly come before the Lord and Lady to declare your undying love in dedication to their service. This is a time of pledges, promise and vows, to declare your love for a year and a day, or for as long as love lasts, to whom you wish to be joined in sacred union.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Prepare for a handfasting ceremony. Commit to a relationship. Commit yourself in service to Spirit through vows of dedication. The union of a partnership brings great blessings. Make a promise to always be true to yourself. Love is the answer.

HANDBFASTING REVEALED

The tying of hands together, in a handfasting ceremony, is a Pagan betrothal custom for couples to make a formal promise, a contract, a commitment to one another. Depending on personal wishes, the couple may choose to commit for either a year and a day, a lifetime, or for all of eternity as they jump over the fire or a broomstick.

HEARTH HOMECOMING

*It's time to do something for you.
Stop racing round. Don't do the do!
Return to that which you know best.
Enjoy some warmth and well-earned rest.
This magic is worked, with harm to none
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

You've heard the phrase "home is where the heart is", right? Well, it certainly rings true for you at this moment in time. The hearth calls you back to the bosom of your family, to return to the centre of what really is important, to remember where your loyalties lie. This is a vital time right now for you to enjoy some home comforts, where you can relax and be the real you. You're done with pretence and keeping up with others for appearances' sake. It's all been rather fast-paced for you and it's time to slow things down and take it easy. Hearth invites you to return back to basics, for a while, where you can rest in the warmth and sup some nourishing soup. Here within your very own space you can review your priorities and maybe rework that schedule of yours. But for now, curl up and focus on some peace and wellbeing. Welcome home!

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

You are in need of some good old-fashioned nurturing right now. Focus your priorities on home life for a while. A family gathering is on the cards. Take some time out to rest and heal. Revel in some more family time. You need to revalue your priorities. Enjoy some home cooking.

HEARTH REVEALED

The hearth is the heart of the home where men and women slept, ate, worked, and crafted around this sacred centre. The deities of the hearth are Hestia, Vesta, and Brigid. The hearth is a focal point and source of warmth and protection. Spells and charms are cooked up at the hearth using the element of Fire to heat magical blends of herbs and spices.

HERBAL KITCHEN ALCHEMIST

*Mixing, making, stirring, brewing, boiling, baking, frying, stewing.
Collecting plants and herbs to use.
Selecting carefully, now to choose.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

You have a natural affinity with all kinds of plants and herbs. Experimental cooking, making potions, and plant medicine has always excited you, and you feel a witchy air about you as you add in carefully selected ingredients for your magical elixirs. Herbal Kitchen delights in confirming that you indeed are a natural kitchen Witch. You have a strong connection with the element of Earth and, of course, the plant kingdom. You are being called to step up and take your alchemistical abilities to the next level. Draw on your inner wisdom to work with plants and herbs to assist you in your spellwork. Look into making alternative or natural remedies and healing sprays, as well as delicious meals that you can tempt your family and friends with. The kitchen is where you belong and feel most at home. Time to cook up a storm!

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Your ability to work with plants and herbs hails from a past life. Invest in studying plants. Your body may be giving you signals to eat a plant-based diet (check with your doctor first). Write a book of natural remedies for ailments. Pursue your dream to cook.

HERBAL KITCHEN REVEALED

Since ancient times, herbs have been used as potions, elixirs, infusions, tinctures, and poultices. Drawings on cave walls depict our ancestors using herbs. From sacred woodlands to your herbal garden, the spirit of the plants hold earth and elemental magic. Each plant teacher, when asked, will assist you in your magical work.

HEX BANISHMENT

*Watch out! Withdraw and beware.
Use discernment and take care.
A fool would ignore Hex's alarm.
Now banish all potential harm.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Hex comes as a warning sign for you to be wary of unwanted energies that are being directed your way. Whether you have felt drained of late or have experienced a prickly feeling, you can be sure that when Hex turns up you have some vital banishing to do. Be sure to check in with your feelings so that you can determine what or who is sucking the life force out of you or directing negative energy your way. Do not be fearful—instead be strong and turn any negativity into positive personal power. This is a time for you to take a stand and to say “no more”! Look more deeply into situations and don't take so much on face value. Tread carefully and keep watch for enemies who lurk in the shadows. Your discernment right now gives you a Second Sight. So trust your instincts and go for the kill. Hex urges you to release, get rid of, and banish anything that prevents you from walking your true path. You are protected when you heed this omen. Ignore it at your peril.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Someone is not who you think they are. Your energy is being drained by another's negative behaviour. Beware of jealousy. Choose friends wisely. Look deeper into an offer or situation. Something is too good to be true. Time to walk away.

HEX REVEALED

Being hexed is the result of a spell, charm, or ritual. Its negative energy is directed to create or cause harm or ill effect. A hex creates an action directed and powered by the emotional and mental state of the practitioner using forces, talismans, and often the personal effects of whoever the hex is focused upon.

HIGH PRIESTESS/PRIEST
RESPONSIBILITY

Influence, control, and power, could result in something sour.

Responsibility's a must, creating outcomes fair and just.

This magic is worked, with harm to none.

So mote it be. There, it is done.

WITCHES' WISDOM

It's not enough to seek power for power's sake; you must accept the responsibility that comes with it. All good Witches know that consequences are attached to any magical workings they may undertake. The Universal Law of Cause and Effect is the Law of Three, in its purest form. If we perform an action that causes a result, then that result further causes an effect that goes on to influence all of Creation in some way. The Priestess/Priest acts as a spiritual guide to coven members, overseeing rituals, training their Witches, making sure that in all that they do, when they come together, is done in reverence and with integrity. Responsibility accompanies the High Priestess/Priest to remind you to undertake a deep awareness of the possible effect of all things as a result of your thoughts, words, and actions. Whether you are a member of a coven or choose to work alone, see yourself as the High Priestess/Priest, and treat all that you do with respect.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Face your responsibilities. Never use your power on a whim. Be careful what you wish for. Own up. Turn to your Priestess/Priest for assistance, if you're in a coven. Your calling may be to become a Priestess/Priest.

HIGH PRIESTESS/PRIEST REVEALED

Those who have had intense study and experience in Wicca/ Witchcraft, honouring themselves and others, and the Divine in service to the God and Goddess. They lead by example and are very knowledgeable about the Craft. Their experiences and abilities, magic, and energy work help and assist others on the path.

HOMELAND FOUNDATION

*Homeland calls you from afar, to remember who you are.
Foundation is the very key,
to understand more easily.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Remembering and acknowledging where you come from is the very foundation that a Witch can build her strengths upon. When your roots are planted fully in the ground that you call home, the wisdom of the ancestors can be accessed and utilised. Homeland is beckoning you to take a long-awaited trip back home, to visit and connect with the lands of your ancestors, that they once walked upon. Allow past memories to surface, whether happy or sad, and tap into your feelings to discover who you really are and what makes you tick. You may have a yearning to travel to a distant land that you have never set foot on. Past life connections are surfacing right now and it is important that you honour this calling. Place upon your altar some earth from your homeland, whether from this lifetime or another, so that you can connect with the very essence of who you are and the land that you walked upon long ago.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Visit your childhood home. Honour any feelings you have about your past. Face up to and accept where you come from. Your past is catching up with you. A foreign land stirs something within you. Investigate your family tree. Look toward home for answers.

HOMELAND REVEALED

We hold a deep spiritual connection within our hearts for the ancestral homelands which we are born to. We are also connected to other lands from previous lifetimes that call to us to visit them. The gods and goddess, ancestors and spirits, hold seen and unseen energy of these sacred places of power, calling us home.

IMBOLC AWAKENING

*The Goddess stands in "Maiden" form, shining through this very dawn.
New fruits stir in her virgin womb, awaken now from winter's tomb.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

New desires are presenting themselves to you as you awaken to opportunities that were once unfamiliar to you. These beckon you now to explore as you become more in tune with the magic and mystery of nature. As you become aware of this awakening you will begin to notice synchronicities, such as chance meetings with like-minded people or animals that cross your path. The ancient mystics worked with the cycle of nature and recognised that when we operate in this way we receive all that we need to survive abundantly. Everything that you are feeling is entirely natural. Your wishes and desires to powerfully evolve and to live as your authentic self have brought about these changes in you. Imbolc opens new doorways for you and what no longer serves you will fall away naturally. This is an auspicious time, for you are becoming truly alive and awakening the true Witch within who now stirs from a deep slumber.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

This is a time of new growth; a good time to purify your thoughts, actions, and diet. This is a great time to seed fresh ideas. Become in tune with your body's cycles. Dream big. Draw on your Maiden aspect of the Triple Goddess. Wake up!

IMBOLC REVEALED

The first signs of Spring are celebrated on this day of the goddess Brigid. This is the festival of hearth and home and the onset of the lambing season and blooming of the blackthorn. Visits to holy wells with gifts and offerings of milk and cloths hung on yew trees mark this time of renewal. A traditional time to spring clean, observe weather divination, omens, and signs.

LADY/GODDESS
FEMININE

*Scent of rose and crystal quartz, softening of all your every thoughts.
Heart now open to receive,
embrace the Goddess, ne'er to leave.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Whether you are female or male, each one of us holds both feminine and masculine energies within our makeup. Lady/Goddess has been drawn, which indicates that you are struggling with an imbalance of these energies. You have given too much of yourself, finding it impossible to receive. It is so important to understand that it is the masculine that gives and the feminine that receives. So the next time someone offers you something, whether it's a gift, a compliment, or help, receive graciously. Working with the scent from fresh roses or natural rose essence, as well as rose quartz, will help heal your heart to open up to receptivity. This will enable you to harness the Divine feminine within and align you with the harmony that you long for. Invoke Lady/Goddess into your life as you willingly receive her gifts of love, peace, gentleness, beauty, purity, and compassion.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Acknowledge your femininity. Re-birth the goddess within. Wear long-flowing robes or dresses. Dance, sing, paint, or draw; allow your creative juices to flow. Be gentle with yourself and more receptive to others.

LADY/GODDESS REVEALED

Many Witches prefer to use the title of Lady when referring to the goddess to encompass all that is from the One Divine Feminine Source. You can, however, develop your own personal relationship with an individual goddess through intense personal work, experience, and focus. Traditionally the Goddess is seen as the triple goddess, of Maiden, Mother, and Crone.

LITHA INTENSIFICATION

*In all that you do, and all that is done, bringer of life and Midsummer sun,
intensifies and gifts you strength,
to claim your power, at any length.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

The intensification of the full sun at Litha shines upon you as you step up to the next level. This is a time of focus, development, and determination as you gain strength and reclaim your inner resolve. Dare to explore every avenue before you, and do the unexpected! A new gateway has opened and you may find that you leave others behind, as your unwavering dedication leads you away. Fear not, for the light of the sun will highlight the path of unfamiliar territory and borrow, if you will, the sun's strength and warmth as you embrace these times of study, focus, and concentration. Diversions may tempt you along the way. You may feel blind for a while as you stumble upon the unknown, but try to remember that these are merely tests of your commitment. The sun gods shine favourably on you and remind you that the answer to prayer and the outcome of spells happen in mysterious ways. Trust the Great Mystery.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

What you have been waiting for comes into fruition during the summer months. Shine brightly. Don't give away your personal power. Move forward fearlessly. Call on the strength of the Sun gods to break through.

LITHA REVEALED

The summer solstice marks the height of the Sun's powers on the longest day of the year. Thousands gather at Stonehenge each year to witness the rising of the sun over the Heel Stone. Midsummer was celebrated in ancient times with hilltop bonfires at night to honour the power of the sun over darkness. This is a time of abundance, fulfilment and strength.

LORD/GOD
MASCULINE

*Toughen up, be self-reliant.
Brave and bold, become a giant.
Honour your male energy.
Used wisely, it will set you free.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

The power of the Lord/God is required for the situation you are enquiring about. Toughen up and use the masculine energy that pulses through your very being. Whether you are male or female, you must acknowledge the natural presence of both energies that reside within, in order to make up the whole of who you are. Right now you are urged to connect with your masculine side and to harness the driving force of independence. A rational and analytical attitude is required in order to override any emotions that often rule you. Unleash your rebellious streak and be willing to use force if you have to. This is not a time to be passive or accepting. The Lord/God is waiting to be called upon so that He can provide you with the tools you need for the battle ahead. With the Divine masculine on your side you can be sure that you are on the winning team. This is an auspicious omen.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Your emotions have influenced you. Logic needs to be used at this time. Do not accept the first offer that's presented. Draw strength from past experiences. This situation calls for you to be rational. Being highly driven and competitive serves you well right now. Be a rebel.

LORD/GOD REVEALED

When calling upon the Lord, you are beseeching the male essence of the All. He is Fatherhood who offers both protection and strength. The three aspects of the God is seen as nature's Youth, Father, and Elder. You can choose to work with whichever aspect of the god you are drawn to bring into your life at any given time.

LUGHNASADH PROSPERITY

*Sunny days are here at last,
time to feast, no need to fast.
Celebrate! Sing, dance, and leap, harvest's in, tis yours to reap.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Lughnasadh brings great tidings of prosperity. Your planted seeds have grown into an abundant crop and now the harvest has been reaped. A time of opportunity and good fortune is upon you. Everything is going your way. The venture you put your heart and soul into, in whatever form, is ready to flourish. Your dreams have been answered and your spells for good fortune are ripe for the picking. Success is yours and like a true alchemist, everything you touch right now turns to gold. So don't let a single opportunity pass you by, for you are supported as you walk your rightful path. This is what you've been waiting to hear. So enjoy every moment and remember to appreciate and bless everything that comes your way. Your days of famine are no more—it's time to reap the rewards and feast upon the good you have created as Lughnasadh shines upon you.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

What you have wished for will flourish into fruition. You are rewarded for your hard work. Don't give up, for success is just around the corner. Your positive attitude and gratitude leads to good fortune. Prosperous circumstances surround you. You reap what you sow.

LUGHNASADH REVEALED

Our ancestors implemented the cycle of crops, and understood how they reflected the human cycle of birth, death, and rebirth. This harvest marks the gathering in of the grains and celebrates the sun god Lugh, who is cut down in his glory, only to rise again next year. This is a time of feasting, a time of plenty, and for acknowledging the cycle of life, death, and rebirth.

MABON BALANCE

*Mabon gifts us dark and light.
Candles lit, one black, one white.
Important to shine out far and wide,
and to honour our shadow side.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

At this time of acknowledgement of the fruit harvest, you are reminded that you too are a part of nature. Therefore it is harvest time for you as well. What seeds did you plant in your life this year? Have they come to fruition? What do you need to bring in or release in order to move forward? Mabon asks you to reach into your very own storehouse to seek the balance within. If you're feeling restless, emotional, or out of sorts then call upon Mabon to restore the balance in your life. Work with all elements in ritual and magic in equal measure, and honour each equally on your altar for a time, until you find a healthy balance in all things. Embrace any aspects of the self which are devoid of light, and eliminate only that which does not serve you, with gratitude and lessons learned. Once balance is achieved, rest and enjoy the fruits of your personal harvest.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Reflect upon the past. Upset or unhappiness is caused by an imbalance in your life. Eliminate anything/anyone who upsets the equilibrium. Embrace and get to fully know your shadow side. Hold onto only the lessons from past hurts. Seize the fruits of your labour.

MABON REVEALED

Autumn Equinox is a day when daylight and darkness are in balance with each other, before the darker days come. As we circle the Wheel of Life, we give thanks to our Earth Mother for this harvest of the fruits. This is a time of going within to reflect on the months beforehand and to count our blessings for the abundance that has been bestowed upon us.

MAGIC CIRCLE PROTECTION

*Caution! Stop! Tis time to warn.
Now step into a circle drawn.
Protection used both night and day,
keeps you safe, sends harm away.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Magic Circle appears when caution is advised. This message comes as a warning, for someone is being untrue. Don't be fooled by appearances or sly words that are formed to lure you in. Withdraw before it is too late. Protection is your greatest ally and calls you to take preventative measures to ensure safety. It is a Witches' responsibility to put protection in place whenever magical work is performed. In fact, it is good practise to protect yourself every day, whether you are consciously working with Spirit, or not. Drawing a circle around you, whether physically with salt or chalk, or in the mind's eye, is a strong form of protection. It can protect you against unwanted energies directed by other people, such as psychic attacks, negative thought forms, and from locations, such as old buildings. You are not in immediate danger right now, but need to be in a place of awareness to take necessary steps of prevention.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Improve your protection. Intense focus and intention are needed when concentrating on protection. Keep thoughts and ideas to yourself. Do not trust simply on face value. Learn and practise thorough protection techniques. You are protected from all harm.

MAGIC CIRCLE REVEALED

First remove all negative energies in the room by scattering salt water or specially prepared incense or herbs. Once prepared, mark the circle using sea salt, then using your athame, wand, or power finger, cast your magical circle around you deosil (sunwise), reciting your incantation of power and protection, in order to banish all unwanted energies.

MOON CYCLES

*Drink of the moon on this fine night, with loving heart and open sight,
Aware of the cyclical ways,
be at one with every phase.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

After an arduous journey Moon appears to indicate that you are coming to the end of a phase. Cycles begin and end and begin again, but in new form. Patterns repeat until the lessons have been fully understood and learned. As you step into this new phase be expectant and full of anticipation, for you will not wish to go over old ground again. New opportunities await, so be vigilant. Outcomes lie in your hands. Call down the moon as she embraces you in her soft, luminous glow. Bathe under the pure feminine and restorative energy she immerses you with, recharge your working crystals under her full presence, and go sky clad in honour of the Triple Goddess who watches over you, as the Moon rules your emotions. Never forget that she also lives within you as you work in conjunction with her phases, honouring at all times your new, full, and dark aspects of Maiden, Mother, and Crone.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Open up to your receptive feminine side. Your emotions are ruled by the moon phases. Harness the moon's energy and understand her phases for your magical work. Work in conjunction with the Triple Goddess.

MOON REVEALED

Ancient civilisations used the moon to scry with and to predict weather patterns. The oceans of the world, cycles of nature, emotions, birds, and animals are all affected by the moon. From the new moon waxing to the full moon to the waning moon, plants and herbs as well as spellcasting are all affected by and worked with each lunar phase.

OSTARA INCUBATION

*What's the hurry? Why the gloom?
Your seed is safe within Her womb.
Await and trust now is the key,
for life will bloom most readily.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Like the sun rising at Spring Equinox, Ostara's promise of new beginnings and fertility is on the horizon. Everything is in place to make real your desires. But first you must allow all things to unfold naturally. The seeds planted at Imbolc need time to nurture deep within the Earth, and even though these seedlings may now be appearing, you are yet to witness them grow into full bloom. So have patience, as this is a time of incubation, for the development of any projects, wishes, spells, and dreams you have breathed energy into. Everything is simmering under the surface and the timing is perfect to bring the best results. That which you cannot see needs to take place first in the background. So don't try to speed up the process. Just wait, trust, and allow the natural order of things to take place. Your patience will pay off!

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

What you have wished for will come about soon. There are underlying factors that need to be considered before completion. A new project is about to take off. Allow your dreams to unfold naturally without forcing the issue. You have a reason to feel excited. New beginnings await.

OSTARA REVEALED

This is a time of balance between light and dark. A time of renewal and rebirth of life. The Vernal equinox calls to our youthful spirit to come out of hibernation and awaken to the lengthening of days. In Pagan times, eggs were given as gifts to family and friends for blessings and abundance. It's a time to celebrate growth and new life.

PENTACLE RESPECT

*When you wish upon a star, five points tell of who you are.
Wear with pride, respect is key,
as you honour its sanctity.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

The Witch has always wished for a respectful understanding between themselves and others who are unfamiliar with the Old Ways. Pentacle shows up with great reverence to remind you that wearing this sacred amulet shows the world who you are and the path you have chosen to walk. Pentacle is not to be feared, for it is a sacred representation of connection, reminding us that we are at one with the elements and All. This star should be worn with pride and a sense of loyalty to not only that which you fully believe and trust in, but also for the ancestors who were persecuted for never wavering from their commitment and truth. When you have honour and respect for all that you do and all that you are, so too will others see you in the same light, as you stand strong in your convictions. So hold your head up high and show the world your respect for this sacred symbol and the true ways of all those it represents.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Be respectful of yourself and others. Your power will increase as you stand firm in your convictions. Honour and work with all that the pentacle represents. Wear a pentacle, or pentagram, with pride. Respect magic.

PENTACLE REVEALED

Pythagoreans hold the pentacle sacred to the goddess Hygeia, goddess of healing who represents the five elements. It was also the secret symbol of the goddess Ishtar. Used as throughout the ages from Mesopotamia and Babylonia, the pentacle is invoked for its power of protection and strength, magic, and ritual work.

RITUAL INVOCATION

*Draw down the moon, Goddess descends.
Draw down the sun, God his spirit to lend.
And with all now share what must be told.
Protection and honour for all involved.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Your desire to connect with the goddesses and gods has been acknowledged. But do you understand the true nature of the deities you are trying to summon? Heed the warning that invocation brings forth, for this action is not without danger for the inexperienced. Ritual teaches you to prepare for power and to judge wisely. It is vital to know about those you wish to invoke. Learn their dislikes and likes and surround yourself with their attributes and the things that they are associated with or represent. True invocation is to surrender, to be a vessel, in order for the deity you have summoned to function within you for a short period. This card has been drawn to assure you that the love and relationship you have with a particular goddess/god is real and runs through the very essence of who you are, through the mists of time. As you aspire to be more than your own greatness and to be humble enough to serve, the connection becomes stronger.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Join a coven for ritual work in safety. Your connection with a deity is linked to past lives. Honour the deities in all their forms through prayer, ritual, dance, chants, and offerings. Remember your protection. Dedicate an altar to your favourite deities.

RITUAL REVEALED

It's important to focus on the purpose of your ritual with intention and right action. Once this is done clear the area, then cast the circle, call to the four quarters or watchtowers, then call upon the Lord and Lady. Build up the cone of power, then state your purpose. Once finished thank the deities, then release the quarters and the circle with love.

SAMHAIN DEATH

*Through veil, whilst thin, this very night.
Protection placed, no need for fright.
Crone welcomes you and all you bring.
Wisdom awaits, now look within.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

You have been avoiding Death. Change is afoot, and you have been desperately clinging on to your old self, all of which you know too well, for fear of losing your identity. You must understand that to die, to the old will escalate you to where you truly desire to be. Time to let go, to surrender and accept that death is never final. It is simply a portal to rebirthing into the next and glorious stage of the cycle called life. Death appears before you now in the form of Samhain. A time of connection and reflection on those who have left this world for the other, and to look at where you have journeyed from and to, during the Wheel of the Year. The goddess, in her triple form, has become the Crone and you are invited to draw on her wisdom from deep within, as she cradles you during the dark months to come. She will protect and guide you through this period of the dark night of the soul, and you will emerge wiser and more powerful than you could ever imagine.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Let go of old patterns and behaviours. Take a risk. Fear is preventing your freedom. Embrace your Croning years and step into your wisdom. A death changes your outlook.

SAMHAIN REVEALED

This Festival of the Dead is when we honour our ancestors. The veil between the worlds of the dead and living is at its thinnest. We celebrate death as a part of life as we journey into the dark night of the soul. This is the time to burn, in the cauldron of Ceridwen, our paper of regrets, embracing the dying of the old self, and transforming into the next incarnation of the self in this life.

SCRYING MIRROR SHADOW

*Mirror, mirror give me sight.
Show me shadows through the light.
Accept I shall, this power in me,
of pure, divine duality.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Through the Scrying Mirror lives a power that you have been avoiding. Focusing only on the qualities of light can only serve half of who you are. There is no point in denying the part of you that you are refusing to see when shadow shows up. Look again and face your shadow side. There is nothing to fear, for this is part of who you are. The light cannot exist without the dark and, when recognised, completes the duality of light and dark, goddess and god, within you. Once acknowledged and accepted, get to know your shadow side. Learn its ways and its vulnerabilities, until you recognise and understand this alternative power that resides in you. It takes great skill to observe it and to know when and what to take from it, when the situation arises. Shadows cannot exist without the light, and from the shadows come the light. By knowing yourself fully in this way you strengthen your energy and increase your personal power.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

You are using only half of your true potential. Understand the importance of duality in all you do. Knowing yourself fully will enhance your magical work. Something is being hidden from you. Open your eyes!

SCRYING MIRROR REVEALED

The magic mirror is a powerful scrying tool, used to act as a portal to other planes of existence, parallel lives, past lives, your subconscious mind, and your shadow side. Made of obsidian, which is a natural volcanic glass, and placed in a mirror with a silver backing, its attributes are used for enhanced psychic vision, blocking negative energy, and protection.

SPELL MANIFESTATION

*Make a wish or cast a spell.
Your magic works so very well
Be sure to keep the Three Fold Law.
Gifts will abound all the more.
This magic is worked, with harm to none
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

This is a good time for you to work spells, for magic abounds. Your manifestation abilities are heightened and a magical energy runs through all that you put your focus on. Your gift at this moment in time, to bring about what you desire, is strong as is your understanding of the elements, herbs, and candle magic. But remember to be careful what you wish for, as you could be blind to any unseen factors if the action you take is not for the highest good. Manifestation asks you to heed the Three Fold Law and to remember that whatever you send out comes back. Be transparent about your wishes, and take into consideration any consequences that may occur. Live accordingly in harmony with a level of consciousness that will harm none and be aware of your thoughts and words at every moment. Master this, and you will be in a position to receive all that you ask for.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

You have the Midas touch right now. Remember to use clarity when visualising your desires. Use positive affirmations to ensure the outcome you wish for. Your spells are working. Study and follow the Three Fold Law.

SPELL REVEALED

When you create magical spells with your intent, desires, and goals, you need to be aware of the outcome. Do what you will but harm none, as is the Three Fold Law. Your thoughts, actions, words, and deeds as spoken or directed need to be for the good of all, including you. Use powers of concentration, tools, and herbs to invoke magical effect.

SPIRIT INITIATION

Could it be right to go alone, or join a coven, what is shown?

Spirit calls you to be true.

The choice is yours, it's up to you.

This magic is worked, with harm to none.

So mote it be. There, it is done.

WITCHES' WISDOM

The element of Spirit is supreme; it is the "unmanifest universe". Spirit contains the substance of all that exists. Take a moment to look at where and how your connection with Spirit lies most strongly. You might feel a powerful connection through the gathering of people, and so joining and being a part of a coven could help strengthen your link. Perhaps you feel a oneness with Spirit as you look up to the stars and feel the magic of the night sky. Or maybe it's being solitary and alone in nature, in welcoming Spirit through the presence of animals and the variety of plants and trees that surround you. No way is the wrong way, for it is your relationship with Spirit that is the most important of all. Initiation offers to assist you in making a commitment to walk your true path and honour Spirit in whichever way you are naturally led.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Make a commitment. Don't worry about what others are doing; be true to your natural self. Seek out a coven in your area. If you prefer to work alone, do so. You are ready and being called to be initiated into the Craft. Acknowledge Spirit in all that you perceive.

SPIRIT REVEALED

Within all living beings lives a force called Spirit. It is the umbilical cord that connects us to the Web of Life. Known also as Ether in some Wiccan traditions, the essence of Spirit lies in the centre of the ritual space. The ritual tool for Spirit is the cord, our shroud that measures the head, heart, and height which are magically linked with Spirit.

STAFF STABILITY

*Merrily you've rolled along.
Whistling tunes and a singing of song.
Stability gets you back on track.
Enjoy the ride, and don't look back.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Your eagerness to get to your destination has caused you to stumble and veer off course. Your lack of focus tipped the balance. Your need to be centred and grounded calls for Stability to accompany you along the rugged terrain. Stability slows you down, reminding you that the experiences you face along the way are what matters. Whether good or challenging, you are in safe hands with the Staff as your guide and teacher. Staff will direct you valiantly through unfamiliar territory. You are being redirected to get back on track. So although it may seem like a long, hard struggle and a never-ending journey, you are merely being guided, via a miscalculated diversion, back to your true pathway. You have come a long way, so please don't give up. You're nearly there now, and with the foundations of Stability to walk with you, you can't put a foot wrong.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Don't let a temporary diversion from your path stop you. You're back on track, so keep going. Be firm in your convictions and commitment. Don't let others divert you from your truth and beliefs. You've come a long way, so don't give up. Keep going, you're almost there.

STAFF REVEALED

The Staff has always been carried throughout the ages as a magical tool of power and authority. It is a symbol of male energy and the elements of Earth, Air, and Fire. In Scottish witchcraft it is used to cast a circle or used as the centre of the circle, representing spirit. In some traditions only the High Priestess or High Priest can carry a staff.

TAROT GUIDANCE

*Questions asked—why, where, or what?
With Tarot by your side, fear not.
For guidance comes through clear and fast, revealing all that you have asked.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

You have been so distracted lately that important messages are passing you by. You've called upon Guidance, and as yet have not stopped to notice or hear the answers that it brings in oh so many forms. Be still, breathe and relax as Guidance coaxes you to use your magic wand to light up the dark chambers within and reveal your natural wisdom. You have all that you need as Tarot takes up its sword and offers you its cup of life to quench your deep thirst for answers. As you drink of its sweet nectar you will find all the advice and knowledge you need for the personal growth required to carry on. Your newly found insight will expand along with the age-old wisdom of Tarot and Guidance to illuminate the way. Follow and trust the messages that are revealed, for they will point you in the right direction with the pentacle to protect you.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Tarot reveals the answers you are seeking. Don't be too proud to ask for help. The signs are all around you; look for them. Learn and study the Tarot. You have a natural talent for reading Tarot and delivering messages. Trust in your psychic abilities. You already know the answers.

TAROT CARDS REVEALED

The history of the Tarot possibly goes back to Egypt. Since many divination tools were banned or destroyed from 70 AD onwards, history does not record these tools. Between 1420 and 1440, Tarot emerged in the Italian courts and spread throughout the lands, often used as playing cards. Today there are many forms of Tarot used for divination.

WAND INTENTION

*A wand's no use to them or thee, if the Witch can't really see.
Intention sets the outcome true.
Power enhanced, will come to you.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

You're making things too difficult. Instead of looking at what everyone else is doing, hone your own talents. There's no point in comparing yourself to others and worrying that you aren't as good. The path you walk is yours alone. The intentions in your heart and mind lead the way. Wave your wand and allow the magic to unveil the criticism that cloaks your senses. Let magic shower over you and see through the eyes of the wisdom keeper. The ability to concentrate fully on your intention, without interruption, is the single most important faculty a Witch can achieve in order to assure the intended magical outcome. Practice this art so that you can use your wand with the utmost clear intention and focused concentration. By doing so you will eventually find that most of your magical work is completed before you even begin.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Decide what it is you really want. Make your intentions clear. Focus on your visions. Practice concentration. Make a decision and focus on the outcome you desire. Craft your own wand. Use intentions with harm to none. Beware of the intentions of others.

WAND REVEALED

Wands are used to create magic, cast a circle, and pointing and directing energy, and are also used for healing and spells. It is the tool of the direction of East and the element of Air. Wands are usually made from magical oak, ash, blackthorn, hazel, birch, and yew trees. They can also be made from various metals, such as copper, set with crystals, and decorated with magical symbols.

WATCHTOWER OF THE EAST SPRING

*Tis the first stirring of Spring.
New beginnings doth East bring.
Drink of what it represents,
purity, growth, and expectance.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Calling the Guardians and Gatekeepers of the East! The season of Spring brings you fresh ideas as it works in conjunction with the element of Air. By visiting the Watchtower of the East, you are being assisted in your journeying work through mediation and connection with the astral plane. Inspiration, creativity and aspiration grace you. The East will assist with writing, tests, poetry, communication, and intelligence. Now's the time to connect with the God in his boyhood and the Maiden aspect of the Triple Goddess, to plant your seeds and dream big so that the Guardians of the East can usher in all that is needed for you to achieve your goals. The colour yellow represents the element of Air and should be used in accordance with your magical workings at dawn. Spring heralds new beginnings for you in association with whichever card flanks this one.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Work with the element of Air to enhance your meditative and visionary skills. You will be assisted in a test or exam that is coming up. Your creative juices are flowing; this is a good time to pen your ideas. Cast your spells at dawn.

WATCHTOWER OF THE EAST REVEALED

Hail and welcome ancient ones of the magical circle of the East! The air blows new ideas and thoughts as the wand points us in the right direction. The element of Air induces the winds of fortune as we focus on new beginnings. As the sun rises at dawn it welcomes springtime and the Goddess in her Maiden aspect and the God as the Youth.

WATCHTOWER OF THE NORTH WINTER

*Winter's hard, but you'll survive, as Crone strips you, whilst still alive.
This season's magic is laid bare.
New wisdom's found within, to share.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Calling upon the Guardians and Gatekeepers of the North! The season of Winter brings you its gifts steeped in magic and mystery, as it works in conjunction with the element of Earth. By visiting the Watchtowers of the North you are being called to go deep within, to rest and recharge whilst Earth nurtures and restores you. The North will assist you with all aspects of home life, security, and the nurturing that you require. Connect with the Crone aspect of the Triple Goddess as you journey with the God, in Elder form, inwards and face that which you have ignored for too long. Allow Winter to freeze out any unwanted behaviours, situations, or addictions you have been holding onto, stripping you bare within the dark chambers of Winter's tomb. The colour black represents the element of Earth and should be used in accordance with your magical workings at the time of midnight. Winter shares its wisdom in association with the card that flanks this one.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

You're going through a dark night of the soul. Surrender and release. Persist—the rewards will be life changing. You are metamorphosing. Rest and rejuvenate. The ancestors are connecting with you. Invoke your dark side with harm to none.

WATCHTOWERS OF THE NORTH REVEALED

Hail and welcome Guardians of the North Star! This is a time of the ancestors. The power of Earth connects us to our wisdom and understanding of the Old Ways. The Goddess integrates and becomes the aspect of Crone as the God embraces the wisdom of the Elder. Pentacle protects this quarter.

WATCHTOWER OF THE SOUTH SUMMER

*Ignite the flames of Summer and know, you are the power, the sacred glow.
Love and passion stirred and invoked.
Abundance is yours now the fire is stoked.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Calling upon the Guardians and Gatekeepers of the South! The season of Summer brings you love as it works in conjunction with the element of Fire. By visiting the Watchtower of the South you are being assisted in awakening your kundalini energy through lust, attraction, and desire. Strength and power fuels the motivating life force energy that ignites your inner flame. The South will accompany you as you walk your path with vitality and vigour. Connect with the Mother aspect of the Triple Goddess and the Father God who brings everything you've worked hard for. Your work is done; time to have fun and enjoy the abundance that Summer bestows upon you. The colour red represents the element of Fire and should be used in accordance with your magical workings at the time of noon. Summer breathes renewed passion into your association with the card that flanks this one.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

An old flame turns up. Romance is rekindled. New passion is breathed into a relationship. You are seeing the fruits of your labour. Your hard work has paid off, enjoy the rewards! You have attracted the energy of abundance. Draw down the Sun.

WATCHTOWERS OF THE SOUTH REVEALED

Hail and welcome to the Guardians who watch over us in the direction of South. Within and without the element of fire burns brightly, bringing us physical manifestation. This is the time of high noon, of Summer's intensity and passion. Athame or sword is the magical tool for the South. The God and Goddess are now Mother and Father to all.

WATCHTOWER OF THE WEST AUTUMN

The West brings the water, so it may impart, connection and healing, and open your heart.

Autumn reflects all that's to reveal.

Cast magic at dusk, for emotions to heal.

This magic is worked, with harm to none

So mote it be. There, it is done.

WITCHES' WISDOM

Calling upon the Guardians and Gatekeepers of the West! The season of Autumn brings you regeneration as it works in conjunction with the element of Water. By visiting the Watchtower of the West you are being assisted to enhance your psychic abilities, as your emotions heal and become balanced. Whilst nature starts to turn within itself, reflect on where you have been, and what has been done during the preceding months. Allow Water to wash over you to achieve harmony, inner peace, and tranquility. The West will open your heart, and reign in any over-sensitivity. Connect with the King and Queen of this season and receive a much needed cleansing and healing on all levels. The colour blue represents the element of Water and should be used in accordance with your magical workings at the time of dusk. Autumn brings emotions to the surface in association with the card that flanks this one.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Look deep within to determine what really matters. The Old Ways that you viewed yourself and others are falling away. Don't let your sensitivity get the better of you. Time for some peace and inner work. Time for you!

WATCHTOWERS OF THE WEST REVEALED

Hail and welcome Guardians of the Watchtowers of the West, those who never sleep. The element of West is Water, the tool is the chalice. As twilight descends, in the autumnal mists we connect with our inner emotions, as our roots grow deep inside the belly of the earth. The God and Goddess are now King and Queen of earth's bounties.

WATER CLEANSING

*The spirit of Water offers to heal, emotions of pain and hurt you feel.
Cleanse and refresh, connecting to sea.
Dive into your heart, and swim now you're free.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

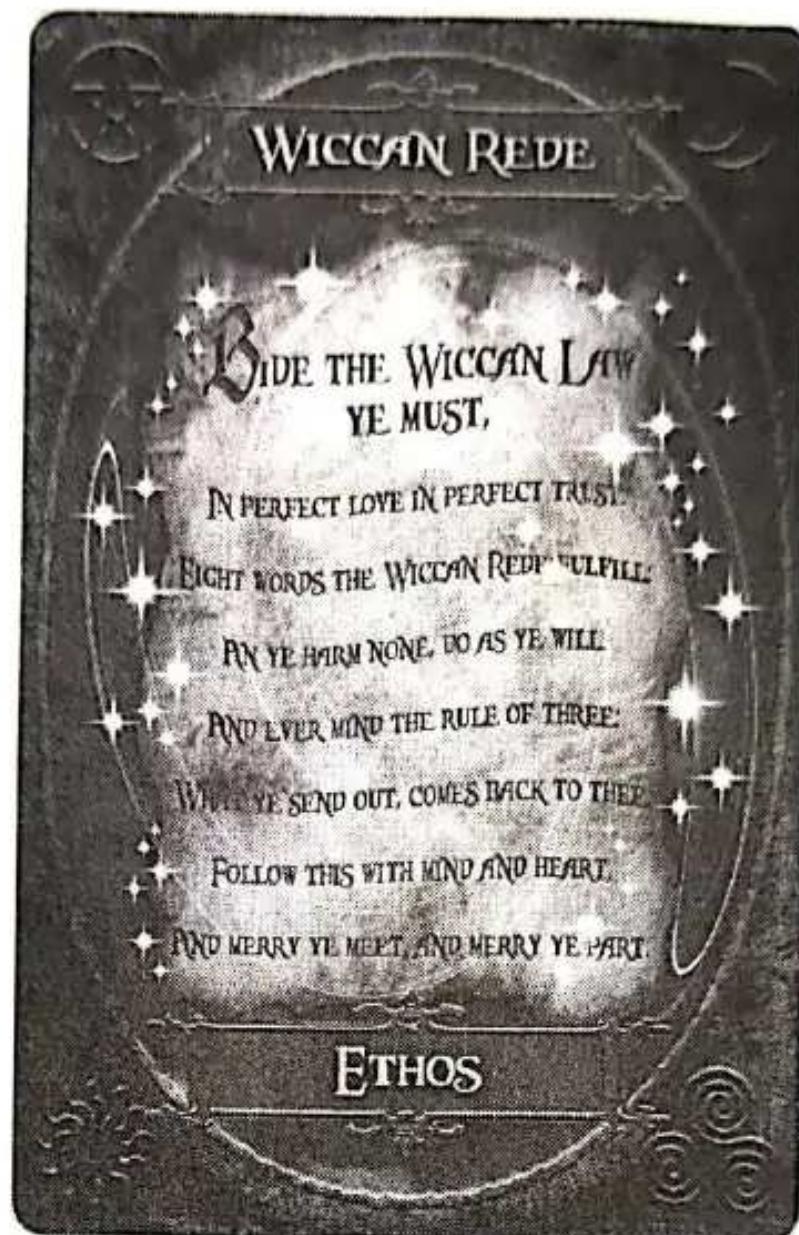

The element of Water has surfaced to help you clean up your act. You have been affected by negative thoughts, doubts, and worries. Allow Cleansing to wash away any pollution that you are drowning in, and release the emotion that is draining your natural vitality and positive outlook. Water seeks out your sensitivity and asks you to tap into your feelings, for you often become overwhelmed when faced with challenging situations and others' demands. Be aware of the difference between your emotions and those of others. Water can soothe, heal, and help you to go with the flow. Water reminds you to bless this "elixir of life" before you bathe or drink of it and to acknowledge your connection to the ebb and flow of the tides and the pull of the moon. Water offers you to dive in and uncover your natural psychic abilities and to enhance prophetic dreams that are ready to emerge.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

You are empathetic. Your sensitivity is a gift—protect it well. You are experiencing new psychic awareness. Vivid dreams are linked with emotion, to be kept in check. Drink more water. Spend time by the sea. Stop trying to go against the natural flow.

WATER REVEALED

Our bodies, as well as our planet, are made up largely of water. Our emotions are connected to the ebb and flow of the oceans and seas. By working with and acknowledging the element of Water, we develop our intuition and flow naturally with life. From women's cycles to birth, blood and rain, the primordial water's deep mystery calls. Chalice symbolises Water.

WICCAN REDE ETHOS

*Bide the Wiccan Rede you must,
in perfect love and perfect trust.
What's sent out must return.
By these words live, study, and learn.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

You are not one for sticking to the rules. In fact, you struggle when faced with that which you must adhere to. You have a natural rebellious streak which has led you into trouble. But honour that side of you, for it makes you all the more wonderful. However, as a working Witch, it is vital that you have integrity in all that you do. At all times must you follow the Wiccan Rede. You can rest assured that it was not put in place to spoil your fun, but to safeguard all magical practitioners from any harm to themselves and to others. You will find that the Wiccan Rede is a positive instructional to live by, and promises a way of life that's in tune with the balance of nature in perfect love and perfect trust. You can be confident that nothing you do will come back and bite you when you live accordingly by the ethos of the Wiccan Rede—and bide the Law of Three: An ye harm none, do as ye will.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Raise your standards, adopt some ethics. Understand the importance of the Three Fold Law and the principle of cause and effect. Live by the Wiccan Rede; it will change your view of the world. Your situation is a result of past actions. Open your heart and trust.

WICCAN REDE REVEALED

Great advice has been received through the wise words written, in different forms throughout history. The Wiccan Rede helps us to understand how to act wisely with all. It's important to abide by this Law and follow it to the letter in all avenues of life, for what you give out comes back to you.

WITCH HEALER

*Honour who you really are, a natural healer who's come far.
The Witch in you is very real.
Trust your work to help and heal.
This magic is worked, with harm to none
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Mystery and magic of the Old Ways beckons you to tap into the ancient wisdom of those who walked the path before you, and to recognise that you are one and the same. For within your blueprint you carry the wisdom of the natural healer. The Witch within asks you to connect with the knowledge and wisdom that you have accumulated from many lifetimes, for it is time to harness your abilities to help heal yourself and others. Seek the wisdom of teachers who mark the land, such as standing stones and trees within a grove, who have absorbed each detail of spent centuries and hold the key to the past. Gather ingredients from plants and fungi. Unlock your herbal knowledge in order to work with recipes for tinctures, elixirs, and healing potions. You are a wise and strong healer. There is nothing to fear and everything to gain when Witch crosses your path.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

You are a natural healer. You have a natural affinity with plants and herbs. Study to qualify as a herbal practitioner. Use complimentary medicine and aromatherapy to heal. You benefit from the healing energies of nature. Honour its rhythms and cycles.

WITCH REVEALED

Nature calls to women and men to walk the craft of the wise in balance, integrity, and honour. By honouring the God and Goddess, Lord and Lady and understanding the role of the High Priestess/Priest, a Witch can transform and change all she touches for the greater good of all. This is done by combining knowledge and wisdom, both old and new.

WITCH'S COTTAGE SECURITY

*Within the forest, dark and deep,
is a dwelling, yours to keep.
Safe within your home you'll be assisted by Security.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Insecurities and a lack of self-confidence have a habit of manifesting. Feeling like an outsider makes it difficult to be positive and fit in. So right now, instead of being on the outside looking in, you have been given the key to let yourself into the Witch's Cottage for a while where you will find all you need to become strong enough to deal with everything that is hurled at you. Explore every room and discover what it is that you feel you are good at, and what you feel most comfortable with. You may find that it is the kitchen filled with herbs and plants to make medicinal recipes, or perhaps it is the welcome warmth of the hearth where you feel most at home. As you investigate, you will discover the right tools and meet friends and familiars along the way for you to choose from and work with until you feel strong enough and ready to reemerge with Security as your supporter, into the bold and confident Witch you really are.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Let others in instead of shutting them out. You are protected, supported, and safe. Trust in the Divine outcome. Recognise your strengths and talents. A new home awaits. Rediscover your likes and dislikes. Don't try too hard to fit in.

WITCH'S COTTAGE REVEALED

Within the Witch's Cottage you will find all you need to change and transform your life. Here you will find magic as the cottage, hearth, or kitchen Witch finds and transforms the mundane into the sacred. A kitchen altar with a corn dolly, spells, recipes, herbs, living plants, comforting foods, family, and daily needs are all a part of living magically day to day.

WITCH'S HAT POWER

*Repeats from the past hold you in fear.
They keep you back, when you're so near.
Your strength reclaimed, grows by the hour.
Now step back into your self-power.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Declaring yourself a Witch isn't about dressing up and just looking the part—it runs much deeper than that. A true Witch understands where their strengths lie and uses them accordingly and wisely. You have all that it takes to walk the ancient path of the Old Ways, and yet you allow others to disempower you. You tend to give in when your words and beliefs are mocked. Past memories of persecution are linked to your fears, which cause your light to fade and hide in the shadows. Time to stamp your foot in defiance to anything past or present that is stopping you from growing into the Wise One you truly are. By standing strong, you are in a state of declaring to the world that you are the Wisdom Keeper others are waiting to turn to. Now you can wear your Witch's hat and stand in your full strength as you step into your optimum power, never to be given away again.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

You are more powerful than you think. Enforce some authority. Someone is trying to influence you. Walk away from those who do not serve your highest interest. Reclaim your self-power. Investigate your past lives to heal fears of persecution.

WITCH'S HAT REVEALED

The hat is a visual representation of the cone of power, which creates higher wisdom. Used in school as a dunce's hat, it was placed on young "witchlets" to help them to increase intelligence and connect with God. The Witches of Subeshi from China in 3 BCE were discovered in graves wearing two foot long black conical hats with a flat brim.

YULE REBIRTH

*You waned, now growing like the Sun,
Who's born again, the light has won!
With Yule log placed upon the fire,
Rebirth delivers heart's desire.
This magic is worked, with harm to none.
So mote it be. There, it is done.*

WITCHES' WISDOM

Like the celebrated midwinter's sun, it's time to make your ascent. You are growing stronger and an exalted journey awaits. Yule honours the return of the Sun's power; a celebration of its rebirth. Your battle has been won and you can take your deserved place next to the winning Oak King who reigns supreme at Yule over the Holly King, until they meet again at the Solstice of Summer. So spruce yourself up, for Yule brings great news of impending rebirth, for a new way of life is just around the corner. Rebirth can come in many forms, such as heading in a new direction, a promotion, a new job, new perception, empowerment, or enhanced connection with the Old Ways. Whatever it is you have been asking for comes to pass when Yule arrives. So be expectant and positive as rebirth accompanies you through to the other side, where you will emerge wiser and stronger than ever before.

WITCHES' FORESIGHT

Your past is truly behind you. The difficulties you've endured have made you stronger and wiser. A new way of life beckons. Shine your light brightly. Your wishes and dreams are coming true. Relax in front of a log fire.

YULE REVEALED

Known also as Midwinter or the Winter Solstice, Yule marks the shortest day of the year. This is the time of the Sun's return when the goddess gives birth to the "star child" on "Mothernight"—a sacred time of solar rebirth when we bring into our homes the Yule log for the returning sun, mistletoe for fertility, and holly for protection.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We acknowledge, honour, and give thanks to all our brothers and sisters who perished and suffered by virtue of who they were, the wisdom they carried, and the good they sought to do.

We embrace and honour all those who carry this wisdom and craft within, every day, in order to live their most authentic selves for the highest good.

To all those who acknowledge we are but one instrument in the vast orchestra of life through which we can learn to heal and make whole by the magical music we can make, we thank you.

To Richard Crookes, our heartfelt thanks for the simply stunning artwork that captures the essence of each card's meaning and magic perfectly.

To Kate Osborne, fellow maker of magic, thank you for all you do as a manager, editor, and friend.
