Instructions for Working with the Magical Mermaids and Dolphins

Oracle Cards

Oracle cards are an ancient method to predict the future, receive guidance, and understand the truth within each situation and relationship. My oracle card decks are designed to allow you to clearly communicate with your guardian angels and the elemental kingdom.

The Magical Mermaids and Dolphins Oracle Cards are specifically geared to help you manifest your desires, life purpose, and Divinely inspired dreams. These cards can help you swim into the ocean of your unconscious mind, where profound thoughts and feelings can create—or block—your heart's desire. Your manifestations will appear more quickly and accurately once you discover your true, deep beliefs. I've also infused these cards with blessings, to support you in manifesting your beautiful, joyful life and Divine mission.

The cards are easy to use, and even if you're a beginner, you can perform amazingly accurate readings for yourself or others. I call the oracle cards a “no-brainer way to contact Heaven.” You can’t make a mistake, because the mystical Law of Attraction always draws the cards that mirror your thoughts and feelings. Those energies can predict your future with great accuracy. The cards can also help you make decisions to change your future for the better, through altering your thoughts and beliefs.

Mermaids are magical spiritual helpers who exist on the etheric plane, and who are ready to assist us. Mermaids have been around for a long time! In fact, mermaid-like goddesses were revered during the age-old days of Babylonia, and many ancient artifacts from civilizations around the globe portray mermaids in sculpture and art.

Mermaids are Divinely magical goddesses who want to help us become strong and powerful light-workers, especially if we agree to help with environmental causes in some way. This could include recycling, picking up litter near oceans or lakes, using Earth-friendly cleaning supplies, or supporting an environmental organization.

Dolphins are the mermaids’ physical companions, playmates, and co-workers. They bring magical otherworldly energy to Earth, and remind us of the importance of playfulness. Sometimes we humans believe that more effort will lead us to our goals, and we try to force things to happen. The dolphins show us that we can reach any destination by embarking on a joyful, playful path. We need to be focused, not somber, to realize the manifestation of our dreams.

Dolphins also remind us to use our sixth sense along the way. Our intuition provides much of the guidance and direction we seek, and dolphins give us prime examples of how to trust our feelings.

Preparing a New Deck of Cards

Your oracle cards have a loving life-force energy that becomes infused with your own the more you work with them. Before beginning your first card reading, though, it's important to consecrate the cards. This is similar to getting to know a new friend or co-worker by spending time together.

Start by looking at each card, making sure to touch every one of them, for that will infuse your energy imprint into every card, making the card deck uniquely yours. After you've looked at and touched all the cards, hold the deck in your hands and make the tops of the cards fan out. Hold the fan to your heart, with the pictures facing you.

Say a prayer, from your heart to the cards, asking that Heaven help you clearly understand the meaning of each card reading. Hold a prayerful intention that every card reading you perform is accurate, clear, and filled with blessings for you and the other people involved.

Oracle Card Readings

The Magical Mermaids and Dolphins Oracle Cards are designed to be used intuitively, which calls for you to be aware of your feelings, thoughts, mental visions, and inner words as you look at the cards. Only use the booklet after you've first consulted your own intuition about the meaning of the cards and card spread. Remember, the cards are "alive" in their own way, and the meaning of each card shifts to each situation. Your body is your best resource for understanding what the cards mean, because it reacts without pretenses to the energy and meaning of each card. If you listen to your body's feelings and reactions to each card spread, you'll have a wealth of information that exceeds volumes of written material.

Begin each oracle card reading by centering yourself. That might mean closing your eyes for a moment and taking a couple of deep breaths. Think of your question, or if you're reading for someone else, have them state their question aloud. The question can be specific or open-ended, such as, "What do you want me to know?"

With the card deck sitting in front of you, lift up a portion of the deck with your right hand. Look at the card at the bottom of the stack you just lifted. Then, repeat the process two more times. You may get the same card repeatedly, which means that the message is extra strong.

If you get three different cards, then they form a storyboard, building from one to the other. You or the person for whom you're reading must use your intuition and honest feelings to determine how the cards relate to the question.

You can also fan the cards out with the card backs facing you, and pull out one or more cards that attract you. Another powerful method is to pray, and think about the question while shuffling the cards. When your intuition guides you to stop shuffling, pull as many cards off the top as you feel guided to take. Lay them out in a line, with the first card you pulled going on the left, and the last card you pulled going on the right.

The card to the left signifies your immediate past, the second card deals with your present, and each card to the right describes your future in three-month increments. Notice the common thread or theme running through the cards as they tell you a story.

If, during the reading, any card "jumps" out of the deck, pay extra attention to it. This card contains a very important message that you may not have noticed if the cards' energy hadn't delivered it to you in this extraordinary way.

If you pull the "Divine Magic" card, pay close attention to the very next card you pull. This card is akin to a trump card that increases the magnitude of the card it's next to.

Your readings are especially clear when you relax and enjoy the process, instead of wondering whether the message is “real” or if you’re making mistakes. Again, you can’t make a mistake or choose the “wrong” cards during a reading. The cards you pull will always accurately reflect your current conditions. If you don’t understand the card’s relevancy, pray and meditate for additional personalized information. The more you stay centered through breath, positive intention, prayer, meditation, or laughter, the easier it will be for you to truly understand what your card spreads mean.

As you look at each card during a reading, the words printed on it will give you insight and answers to your questions. In addition, meditate upon the artwork on each card, as this also contains clues for you. You may find that you clairvoyantly see other images in your mind’s eye, which have been triggered by looking at the cards. Any vision, thought, feeling, or word that comes to you during the reading contains answers to your questions.

Merging This Card Deck with Your Other Oracle Cards

You can mix these Magical Mermaid and Dolphin Oracle cards in with the Healing with the Angels, Healing with the Fairies, and/or the Messages from Your Angels oracle cards. All four decks work beautifully together, and you'll probably find that your readings have cards with similar messages from each deck. This may help you accept the accuracy and validity of your oracle card readings.

General Meanings of the Cards

Each card has a title at the top and a message at the bottom. In this booklet, the card meanings appear in alphabetical order, according to their title. The titles and card messages often give you enough information, coupled with your inner guidance. Consult the following expanded meanings only after you've first noticed your intuitive feeling in response to each card.

Accept Heaven's Help

“You’ve prayed for help, so get out of the way
and let Heaven help you.”

You’ve asked, “What should I do next?” This card responds: “Trust that your prayers have been heard and answered. Simply rest and retreat for now. After all, you prayed for Divine intervention, so step aside and let Heaven intervene, as this is the help you prayed for.”

You can assist the process initiated by your prayers through quiet contemplation. Ask Heaven to give you very clear, easily understandable guidance, letting you know if you need to take any action. In the meantime, enjoy knowing your angels and guides surround you and your situation with loving care.

Alchemy

“You have the Midas touch right now, and every project you begin turns to gold.”

You're on a roll at this time, with the energy of heightened success surrounding you and your endeavors. You instantly manifest your thoughts and ideas now, so choose them carefully! Just as you're capable of manifesting masterpieces right now, you're also able to manifest problems. But the good news is that you can also undo any manifestation that you're unhappy about.

An alchemist is someone who turns base metal into precious gold or silver. You have the ability to take ordinary projects and make them come alive with meaning, blessings, and abundance for everyone involved.

Your gratitude for your God-given manifestation power, and also the joy you feel in response to the beautiful creations that stem from it, are keys to amplifying your alchemy abilities. Affirm frequently: “Thank you for helping me focus my thoughts completely on joy and the desire to be connected to Divine love. I am so grateful that all of my needs are so carefully addressed—instantly.”

A New Dawn

“The worst is now behind you, and positive new experiences are on the horizon.”

You’ve endured storms over rough seas, but now the way is clear and smooth. From hereon in, you can expect the best. Wash away the negativity from your consciousness and past memories, and keep only the positive lessons and love. Don’t hang on to anything that could weigh you down, such as resentment or bitterness. Let it go!

If you’ve gone through patterns of negativity in the past, this is the time to affirm: “I now release the need to experience this life lesson. I extract whatever teachings I need to discover, and I move on to a life of harmonious and peaceful actions.”

By pulling this card, you’ve turned a corner in your life, wherein your prayers and positive thoughts are delivering new rays of Divine light to illuminate your present and future.

Blessed Change

“A major life change brings you great blessings.”

Although you may feel as if your life is upside-down right now, everything that’s occurring is for the best. This card assures you that the changes in your life are actually helping you leave behind that which no longer serves you. Your spiritual purpose with the old situations is now complete. You’re urged to stay centered in grace and acceptance. Keep affirming: “I welcome Divinely inspired change, and I stay centered in the eye of the hurricane as change occurs around and within me. All change is for my highest good. I know that love is stable and always provides for me and my loved ones—no matter what our outer situations appear to be.”

Change ushers in fresh opportunities to learn, grow, prosper, and create new relationships. The key is to keep breathing and enjoy the changes, even if they’re intimidating. If the Universe pushes you toward new responsibilities, know that you’re qualified in Heaven’s eyes.

Break Free

“Try different ventures and experiences as a way to grow and learn.”

Sometimes we get into ruts and routines because they feel safe and comfortable. By drawing this card, you're asked to swim outside your comfort zone. It's time to take risks and explore new ways of thinking, making a living, or being in relationships.

When you make the commitment to explore and experiment, the world responds by giving you wonderful new experiences. Heaven isn't necessarily asking you to settle into these new avenues, but to instead test the water and venture out. Sometimes we'll experiment and learn new things, and then when we return to our comfortable old routines, we're changed (for the better). This is definitely a time for you to reach out and enjoy new options. Try something new today!

Consult an Expert

“More information is needed.

Contact someone with expertise in this area.”

You’re venturing into an area where other people could assist you by offering you new ideas and information, as well as the benefit of their experience. To attract the right expert to help you, affirm: “A helpful, knowledgeable, experienced person with integrity is in my life right now, and this individual will help me with [describe the situation you’d like assistance with]. This person comes to me easily and naturally, without delay.”

When this person appears, know that it’s Divinely orchestrated. Don’t hesitate or feel guilty about asking for help. Instead, take notes, and give thanks to the person and to Heaven.

Remember, it’s not a sign of weakness to ask for help. Many of Earth’s most wonderful inventions came from team efforts. By working with informed individuals, you also develop the healthy habit of consulting with your celestial guides more consistently.

Contemplation Time

“Spend time alone, meditating upon what you truly desire.”

This card indicates that you need some alone time. Make a firm appointment to be by yourself in a quiet place (ideally, outside in nature or near some plants) without delay. Make sure that you'll be uninterrupted for at least one hour. Take a pad of paper and a pen with you.

Then, spend some time simply breathing, relaxing, and centering yourself. After you're completely relaxed, write down this question to your subconscious mind on your pad of paper: "What do I want to do next?" Write whatever comes to you in response, without worrying whether it's "correct" or not. Then, ask your subconscious: "What's my heart's true desire right now?" Write down the answer. Spend time noting your true priorities so that you'll know how to structure your free time to match what's important to you.

Divine Magic

“Extra magical energy surrounds your situation right now.
Expect miracles!”

This card signifies that the next oracle card you pull out of the deck is surrounded by Divine magical energy. The Divine Magic card urges you to pay very special attention to this card, and do your best to follow its message.

The Divine Magic card indicates that a spiritual gateway has opened for you. At such times, your ability to manifest is heightened. Use this time to focus upon your desires. If you're unsure what you truly want, ask for Divine guidance through prayer, meditation, or ritual.

Dream Big

“Let go of small thoughts about yourself!
See yourself succeeding.”

In the past, you may have seen yourself as insignificant. This card asks you to release any thoughts or feelings of inferiority. Truly believe that you are utterly qualified for any endeavor you can dream about!

Write down a list of your fears about moving forward, and then “drown” those fears by putting the paper into a bucket or large bowl of water. Then, take a cleansing shower, bath, or swim. The water seals your new way of seeing yourself . . . as you are in truth: an equal to all other children of God.

Empowerment

“You’re more powerful than you realize. It’s safe for you to be powerful!”

This card confirms that your inner power wants to surface. You’ll use this power appropriately, and you’re incapable of abusing it. Your true friends, and the people who really love you, will be happy that you’ve taken your power back.

Empowerment means that you’re no longer willing to see yourself as a victim in any way. It means letting go of all blame with respect to other people, past conditions, or present circumstances. Know that you can be powerful and gentle simultaneously—and still be very effective.

Affirm frequently: “It’s safe for me to be powerful! I accept my God-given power to be used in the service of light and love.” Then, enjoy the shifts you see around you. Instead of worrying what others think about you, use your power to make the world a better place. You may never feel self-conscious again!

Explore Your Options

Sometimes we think, This is the way it is, and we don’t see other options. By drawing this card, Heaven now asks you to question any situation that you think can’t be changed.

Take a moment and pretend that a magical mermaid has granted you three wishes. You can have anything you want! What will you wish for? The truth is that most anything you desire is possible, and this card asks you to explore your options. At first, you might do so mentally—through day-dreams and nighttime dreams.

Then it’s important to turn those possibilities into realities by breaking them into small goals that you can accomplish today. When you explore new opportunities, the energy of the Universe begins flowing in the direction of your dreams. Any step that you take—no matter how small—will help you see options that you may never have noticed before.

Father Healing

“Your personal power increases as you give any father-related issues to Heaven.”

This card shows you that you still have some father issues left to heal. The healing doesn't need to take a lot of time—it simply requires your willingness to be free of any old anger, grief, or fear related to your male parent.

Universal energies are either male or female. Male energy is expansive and giving. Female energy is nurturing and receptive. If we're unhealed with respect to our father, the Universe seems to be ungenerous. If we're unhealed toward our mother, we won't accept the gifts the Universe offers us.

The more you focus on the spiritual truth of your father, the more your heart will be receptive to the Universe's continuous and all-encompassing giving. Accept your rightful bounty, and open your arms to your Divine inheritance. Affirm: “I now focus on the love that is the spiritual truth of my father, and I hereby balance any karma between us. I now let go of everything but the love and the lessons of my relationship with my father.”

Friendship

“Make a date for a play day with one or more friends.”

Although you're busy with responsibilities, it's important to take time out to play with one or more friends. By drawing this card, you're urged to make a date to go have fun with a companion. Whether a new acquaintance or a beloved old friend, it's important for you to balance your schedule with some good old-fashioned companionship and frivolity.

When you play and laugh, you open yourself to infusions of healing love. Friends help you remember how lovable you are! They also give you support without wanting anything in return.

Play stimulates creativity, which helps you return to your responsibilities with a renewed outlook and increased energy. Affirm: “I now have wonderful friends, and free time to spend engaging in playful activities with my loving companions.”

Have Faith

“Your prayers are manifesting.
Remain positive, and follow your guidance!”

Good work! You’ve been asking and praying for some big dreams to come true . . . and it’s working! Just like a gardener who has planted new seeds, you must have faith that your crops will push above the surface. Keep watering your dreams by taking the steps that make them flourish.

This is a precious time for you and your dreams. You don’t have to strain or push to make them come true. You’ve already accomplished the major part of manifestation by asking and praying. Trust that Heaven is helping you—just like a best friend would if you asked for their assistance. Your job is to have faith, listen for Divine guidance, and take action whenever you’re guided.

Healing Heart

“You’re a powerful healer.
Keep up the great work!”

Deep within your heart, you’re aware of your healing abilities. Perhaps you’ve received feedback from others about the way that your words or touch have helped them heal. By drawing this card, you’re urged to take your healing work to the next level. You’re also asked to purify your diet and thoughts so that higher frequencies of healing energy can flow through you.

By opening to the next level, you’ll notice a shift in the people or situations that come to you for help. You may find the number of healing opportunities increasing, or your clients may display a greater understanding of spirituality.

Heaven wishes to support your healing work completely. If you’d like to further your education, work in a healing center, or increase your income, just ask . . . and then be open to receiving.

Helpful Person

“Someone wants to help you.
Think of whom that might be, and initiate contact.”

There's a person who can help you reach your desired outcome. You've probably already thought of whom this person might be. Or, it could be a new person coming into your life whom you'll soon meet.

Be open to receiving help from others. Strong people learn the importance of delegating and working as a team, and this may be a time for you to learn these vital life lessons. So, be sure to voice your needs and ask for assistance. With the help of others, you're more able to manifest your Divine purpose and desires.

Let Yourself Receive

“Allow others to give you loving care. Receive without guilt or apologies.”

You’re a giver, and you help others in so many ways. Most of the time, you truly enjoy giving. So, when you let others give to you, they experience the joy of giving. You give them a gift each time that you’re a gracious receiver.

By receiving, you replenish yourself and balance the male and female energies within and around you. By allowing yourself to receive, you swim in the flow of life, which washes away stagnant energy, bringing in new forms of abundance, creative ideas, and all types of opportunities. Even the simplest act of receiving is healing, and it is a powerful step in the manifestation process.

Make a Decision

“Feeling stuck or indecisive?
Listen to your intuition and make a decision!”

Sometimes life feels as if it's at an impasse while we await Heaven's next instruction. By drawing this card, however, Heaven asks, “What do you want?” Sometimes the Universe asks us to be the decision maker, and this is one of those times.

Instead of passively allowing life to push you around like a canoe without oars, you're counseled to take charge and set your own course. Know that Heaven gives you all of the resources you need to pull yourself out of any situation, as long as you make a firm and clear decision.

Your decisiveness is the catalyst for Heaven to clear the way for your manifestation. Let go of all fears or worries, and focus only on the destination you intend to reach. Enjoy the journey along the way!

Make a Wish

“This is a magical moment.
Make a wish, and enjoy its manifestation.”

Say an affirmative prayer right now, which means stating your desire as if it were already true. Thank Heaven for this reality, and feel in your heart and belly that your dream is actually a reality. For example, say, “Thank you, Heaven, for [whatever your desire is]. I’m truly grateful for your continuous support.”

Now is a magical moment. Go into a quiet space—even if it’s just for a moment. Close your eyes, and imagine that your wish has come true. Feel it with your entire being. Then, express thanks for this gift, and release it like a helium balloon that goes straight to Heaven. If you need to take action to co-create this wish, you’ll be given strong and repetitive guidance in the form of feelings, thoughts, ideas, inner words, signs, visions, or dreams. It’s important that you follow this guidance in order to bring the wish into physical form.

Morning Affirmations

“Say positive affirmations each morning to open the gates of manifestation.”

This card asks you to begin each day with positive intentions and affirmations. Before arising from your bed, spend a few moments thinking about your desires. Don't worry about how to bring them into physical form. Just allow yourself to imagine that they've already manifested.

Then, make one or more positive affirmations relating to your desires. When you open your eyes, write down these affirmations (it's a good idea to keep a pad and pen on your nightstand). During the day, look at the affirmations and say them mentally or verbally.

Mother Healing

“As your feelings toward your mother heal, your desires manifest more rapidly and accurately.”

By drawing this card, Heaven asks you to release some remaining “mother issues.” Give the entire situation to Heaven, knowing that everything is in the hands of Infinite Spirit. The situation may heal in unexpected ways. Be unconcerned with how it heals, and be vigilant in releasing any lower energies connected to your mother that could interfere with your life’s mission.

By releasing any mother issues to Heaven, your heart opens further to accepting joy and blessings into your life. Your mother benefits when you’re happy, whether or not she’s consciously aware of it. Be willing to forgive and release old issues relating to yourself, your mother, mother figures, or anyone connected to your mother. By cleaning your inner house, you invite new love, opportunities, abundance, and healing energy to enter your life.

"To manifest rapidly, think of your desire while you chant, hum, sing, or play music."

Music for Manifesting

"To manifest rapidly, think of your desire while you chant, hum, sing, or play music."

Music is a powerful ally on your spiritual path, as it serves to boost your manifestation powers. Music is part of the invisible realm, and is of a higher frequency than that of the physical plane. It wraps us in a protective shield to guard us from negative energies. It also lifts our emotions and thoughts to joyful levels.

By drawing this card, you're urged to play any type of music that suits your mood, as often as possible. Move your body to the music, and breathe in deeply as you listen to it, drawing in the energy of each note.

Use music as a manifestation tool. First, sit quietly and think of your desire. Imagine that your dream has already come true, and feel that reality in your stomach as warmth, peace, excitement, or security. Feel gratitude in your heart. As you enjoy these feelings, begin to chant, hum, or sing. This self-made music sends your manifestation into the ethers, where it coagulates into tangible reality!

Pay Attention

“Notice repetitious signs and your inner guidance, as this can yield valuable information.”

Heaven is giving you important messages, and by drawing this card, you're asked to pay extra attention to them. Notice conversations you overhear, comments made to you by others, and inner feelings and thoughts. Look for common threads among the signs, as they're forms of guidance to help you manifest your Divine purpose and desires.

It's not your imagination that Heaven is sending you signs and Divine guidance. Anytime you hear or feel something three or more times, especially within a short time period, it's information worthy of your attention. These signs also give you feedback about your current belief system, since your thoughts attract mirroring experiences. Use these signs to heal beliefs that dishonor you, and swim in the direction that your guidance points you.

Play Time!

“The dolphins know the importance of playing, as joy creates miracles and manifestation.”

This card indicates that you've been straining and working too hard, and that you've lost your original focus. You're striving more out of habit than out of a clear direction. The dolphins ask you to stop, and divert your attention through silliness and non-competitive play. Any kind of playfulness will shake up your ruts and routines, and allow you to regain perspective on what is important and what is not.

Playing is a magical form of meditation, as it opens your heart chakra and allows your creative spirit to tap in to Divine wisdom. If your playfulness involves outdoor physical activity, the extra oxygen will also spark new ideas for you.

Positive Energy

“Surround yourself with positive people and situations, and avoid negativity.”

Your manifestation work is going wonderfully well. By drawing this card, you're encouraged to take the process to an even higher level by going on a "negativity diet." This means avoiding negative influences as much as possible. Avoid negative discussions with yourself or others. Turn off television and radio programs with negative themes, and stay away from violent movies. Don't read pessimistic headlines, and steer clear of gossip-based magazines. This negativity diet will cleanse you of any hidden blocks that could slow down the manifestation of your dreams—or prevent them from coming true at all.

Another thing you can do is to apply Feng Shui, the ancient Chinese art of placement, to your physical environs, which will help enhance the positive energy in all of your surroundings. You're also asked to donate or sell items that are cluttering your home. This helps you bring in new energy and opportunity, and will also establish an environment that promotes creativity, health, and abundance.

Protection

“You, your loved ones, and your possessions are safe and protected by Heaven!”

Your prayers, which ask for safety and protection, have been heard and answered. Any attacks or threats are now a thing of the past, washed away with the tide of Heavenly love. This love is clearing away your insecurities so that you can feel totally secure.

When you ask Heaven to watch over you, your loved ones, your home, and your possessions, your prayers are instantly answered. There's no hesitation or delay on Heaven's part—it's done as soon as you ask!

Your energies can now be directed in meaningful and creative ways, with your mind clear of worries. Enjoy your day!

Ready, Set, Go!

“Now is the perfect moment to dive in and embrace your heart’s desire.”

Even though you might not feel entirely ready, this card says that there’s no better time than the present to dive into your future. You’re advised to take both big and small steps to move in the direction of your dreams.

Push aside everything unrelated to your life’s mission. Adjust your schedule so that the bulk of your time relates to your priorities and goals. Delegate tasks to other people, or hire someone to assist you. Your responsibilities will still be met, you’ll be happier, you’ll enjoy greater self-esteem, and you’ll attract more abundance in the long run—if you jump in and follow your heart.

Rest

“You’ve been working hard.
Take a nap and get some rest.”

This card asks you to slow down, rest, and be very gentle with yourself right now. Can you cancel your appointments today (or for part of the day) and take a nap? By drawing this card, you’re urged to let go of unnecessary activities, and to focus on self-renewal.

Give yourself a hug, look in the mirror, and say, “I love you. I promise to treat you with the respect and care that you deserve. You’re wonderful!”

No rushing or time urgency is allowed today! This is a day of sweet kindness, where you treat yourself as gently as a baby cradled in your arms.

Self-Employment

“You’re a born entrepreneur, and your business is surrounded by magical opportunities.”

You have the drive, discipline, and desire to be your own boss. This card also shows that you have the magical ingredients for a successful business. Heaven wants you to know that you’re fully supported spiritually. As long as you stay enthusiastic, new opportunities will come to you. Your positive energy attracts customers, clients, and contracts.

If you’re in the process of opening a new business, now is the time to do spiritual work (praying, meditating, visualizing, and affirming); to conduct research about your business; and to work on yourself (by eating healthfully, getting sufficient sleep, and exercising regularly). These multiple layers of action will propel you to miraculous business opportunities.

Self-Forgiveness

“Let go of old guilt, and remember that you’re God’s perfect child!”

You’ve been very hard on yourself lately, using harsh words toward yourself verbally or mentally. While it’s healthy to hold yourself up to high standards, this card says that you’ve bordered on self-abuse! Everyone makes mistakes, and it’s normal to feel regret occasionally. What’s important, though, is how you handle these mistakes.

As you focus on your positive attributes, your self-esteem will increase and your stress level will be diminished. Remember that guilt is the opposite of love. Your guilt doesn’t help anyone or anything, but your Divine love helps everyone, everywhere! Affirm: “I ask that all effects of my mistakes be undone in all directions of time, and I now release all guilt completely. I love my true self, from top to bottom.”

Set Your Sights Higher

“Increase your standards, and expect more for yourself.
Don't settle!”

This card indicates that you've been trying to rationalize that some situation is okay . . . when it isn't. You've settled for less than you desire, and for much less than you deserve. You don't need to compromise! Heaven will help you heal, or will replace troubling situations in your life. All you need to do is ask for Heaven's help, and then adhere to the guidance that results.

Take time today to visualize and dream about your true heart's desires. Don't worry about being disappointed—you deserve a great life, and you have the power and the Heavenly help to accomplish it! Fear and worries slow down your manifestation, so keep releasing all cares and doubts to Heaven.

You may feel intimidated by moving up to a higher plateau in your journey; however, you have Heaven's reassurance that you're ready. Reach for the stars, know that you're qualified and deserving of these gifts, and open your arms to receive them!

Simplify Your Life

“Eliminate clutter from your home and work life to balance the flow of activities.”

Your energy has been fragmented, and it's time for an adjustment. By drawing this card, you're asked to take drastic measures to simplify your life. This means clearing your home of unnecessary items, cancelling subscriptions to extraneous publications, saying no to demands on your time, getting organized, and being more efficient with respect to your schedule.

You may feel that such a project is overwhelming. However, if you take one day a week to whittle down the clutter, you'll feel an enormous lifting of weight from your soul. This results in an energy and esteem boost that will enable you to complete the tasks at hand. Your soul and body will thank you for your simpler life!

Soulmate Relationship

“New romance with a spiritual basis is here for you now.”

Your desire to be in a great love relationship has manifested, and you're being guided to create or maintain that situation right now. This relationship has a deep spiritual basis, with both partners having true faith and profound beliefs. You and your partner share similar spiritual concepts and are open-minded when it comes to learning about and implementing new practices.

This partnership flows to you naturally right now. However, if you worry about or try to force the situation to happen, you could slow the results. It's important for you to enjoy the process leading up to your desired outcome. Dance with the movement that your manifestation has created for you. Attract your partner through your warm and relaxed demeanor, and know that Heaven is taking care of all of the details for both of you!

Stay Optimistic

“Your dreams are coming true.
Don’t quit right before the miracle occurs.”

This is it—your time has come! You’re about to collect your rewards, and your prayers will be answered. However, a bit more patience and guided action on your part is required. The extra wait and effort are definitely worth it. You’re just about there, and this card asks you to keep your faith about miracles and heavenly magic.

Use your imagination to visualize that your dreams have already come true. Your heart will swell with gratitude and joy, and these emotions will speed up your desired manifestations. Before long, you’ll be enjoying the tangible results.

Synchronicity

“Your prayers and questions are being answered by synchronistic events. Notice them in order to increase their flow.”

As a result of all your prayers and manifestation work, you're now attracting synchronistic events. Those “chance meetings,” information that you just “happen” to receive, and other synchronicities are really answered prayers. By drawing this card, Heaven calls your attention to the synchronicity and serendipity happening in your life. The more you notice these magical events, the more they'll occur for you. Even better, write them down in a journal as a way to stimulate more synchronicity in your life.

You may already know that there are no coincidental or accidental occurrences. This card reflects your recent focus on positive thoughts, which are being directed toward your desires. Like a magical energy beam that can influence physical objects, your optimism and faith are reshaping your life into a masterpiece that reflects your higher self.

Time to Move On

“It’s time to let go of the old and worn out so that the new can come in.”

By drawing this card, you’re alerted to the fact that you need to make room for the new by letting go of the old. First, let go emotionally and intellectually. In other words, “quit” or “say good-bye” in your mind and heart.

Once you do this, the physical letting-go will happen naturally, in a peaceful and harmonious way. Ask Heaven to help you make this transition, and don’t plan, scheme, or worry about how your letting-go (or replacement) will occur. Put all of your energy into prayer and faith, and leave the rest up to Infinite Spirit. You’ll get definite guidance whenever it’s the right moment to take action. Until then, stay lovingly detached from your old situation.

Tranquility

“Make time to relax, be still, and enjoy your solitude, indulging in much-needed self-care.”

This card asks you to take a break from your harried schedule. Soaking or swimming in salty water creates a magical electrical energy shift in your body. The salt draws out emotional and physical toxins.

Purchase sea salt from your local health-food store's spice section, and pour lots of the salt and fragrant essential oils into your warm bathwater. Be sure to immerse your chest and heart chakra under water as you soak in the tub in order to release toxic emotions.

Burn a white candle near your bathtub. As you look at the flickering light, think about what you want. The white candlelight amplifies your thoughts and feelings, so think about your desires and not your fears. Let the saltwater wash away any doubts that could block your manifestation. Ask the candle to illuminate your mind with faith and positive expectations. Enjoy this relaxation time, and have faith that your prayers have been heard and are being answered.

Treasure Chest

“An unforeseen windfall of new abundance comes to you now!”

Your prayers for financial support have been heard, and assistance is here for you now. It comes in wonderfully unexpected ways.

Remain in a state of gratitude that says that the money is already here, even if there's no visible evidence of it yet. When you feel grateful before the demonstration of supply occurs, it reveals your faith. And your faith is the energy that draws riches to you without delay. Affirm frequently: “Thank you for all of the support, supply, abundance, and money that you bring to me. I am grateful for these riches, which I use in Divine ways to bring blessings to the earth.”

Your supply may show up in the form of money, or it may come as new opportunities, brilliant ideas, or gifts from others. Bless and honor Heaven's gifts however they come to you. Your gratitude ensures continual, overflowing abundance in your life.

Wait

“Don’t rush into action right now.
Bide your time for better results.”

If you take action now, you’ll miss a window of opportunity that’s coming up for you shortly. Don’t worry—you’ll know in your heart and gut when that moment arrives. In the meantime, it’s important to meditate and make sure that your breathing is deep and frequent. (Often we hold our breath or experience shortened breath during stressful periods.)

You’re also on the verge of receiving new information that will alter the course of action you plan to take, leading you in a more positive direction. By waiting, the outcome will be much more enjoyable than if you took action without this added information. Affirm: “I have infinite patience, and I am Divinely directed to always be in the right place at the perfect time.”

Watch Your Thoughts

about what you desire,
not what you fear.”

By drawing this card, you’re alerted to the extra importance of monitoring your thoughts. You have no neutral thoughts, and every one of them creates an effect in your life. So you’re being asked to be vigilant in holding only positive thoughts.

Most of us slip into negativity occasionally, and you may be no exception. However, you can “undo” the effects of negative thinking by recognizing them, and stating: “I now cancel that thought, and replace it with the following positive affirmation of my true Divine desires.” Then list the situations and attributes that mirror your godliness and goddessliness. During this important part of your life, you have the power to manifest your highest potential at the most rapid rate possible.

Waves of Prosperity

“New abundance and exciting opportunities wash over you now.”

New waves of abundance are sweeping over you right now. Observe any ideas that enter your mind at this time, as they may be seeds of a profitable new venture. Also notice any out-of-the-blue phone calls or “chance” meetings with people who could help you.

This card also means that you’re on a success streak. This is an excellent time to begin new ventures (of course, follow your inner guidance and do appropriate research). You’ll see that doors open easily for you, and that you’re filled with extra confidence and enthusiasm. Practice being a grateful recipient of good. Know that there’s an ocean of abundance, with no danger that it will dry up.

Worthiness

“Know that you deserve to receive good in all ways.”

You’ve been blocking your manifestations due to deep-seated beliefs that you don’t deserve them. Manifestations aren’t rewards for good behavior—they’re effects of your thoughts, beliefs, feelings, and actions. When you allow yourself to receive, you help with God’s plan to demonstrate love everywhere.

Accepting Heaven’s help isn’t just about you personally; it’s about allowing yourself to be helped so that you can help others. Accept good graciously, and affirm: “Thank you for gifts that have come to me now. I gratefully accept them for the good of all.”

Yes

“Your intuition is correct.
Take action accordingly.”

You're fairly certain about your next move, and you pulled this card as additional validation, which will spur you into action. This card confirms that your intuition is accurate, and that you can trust it fully.

The joy you feel, knowing that your intuitive feelings are valid, may be tempered by the fear of making life changes. Heaven wants you to know, however, that all of the details are being taken care of. You're supported in all ways as long as you ask for help and then accept it as it comes to you in various forms.

You're Being Helped

"Heaven is working behind the scenes to help you, even if you don't see results yet."

Your manifestation is being worked out right now, even if you can't see tangible proof. As an analogy, when sailors get close to land, they often see signs of life, such as birds flying or branches floating in the ocean. By drawing this card, you're urged to notice signs that "land" (your manifestation) is near.

Even if you can't yet see evidence that your manifestation is in process, this card assures you that your prayers have been heard and answered. Stay centered in faith and gratitude in order to open the door to your desires.

Artwork by Richard Fields

Card Name: Positive Energy

Richard lives in Maui, where he began his career by painting T-shirts at a factory. He became so skillful that this led him to painting on canvas, where his love of beauty, fantasy, and the Hawaiian islands came into full bloom. His paintings are a blend of the mystical, with the awesome nature beauty of Hawaii. His images are currently available through Dreams of Fields Gallery on Maui, as lithographs, museum-grade archival limited-edition Giclees (high-quality limited edition prints), and large-canvas original paintings. Visiting this gallery is an awesome experience, since the proximity of so many large museum-quality paintings creates the aura of a “temple-museum.”

Artwork by Sharon George

Card Name: Yes

Sharon has been an illustrator and freelance artist since 1984, with a background in oil painting, colored pencil, and pen-and-ink illustration. Her company, Gorgeous George Graphics, was born of invention; trying to raise children and generate income simultaneously, working for herself seemed like the best way to go. She began experimenting with computer graphics, and found the idea of painting on the computer tremendously exciting. Sharon creates both print media and Websites. An award-winning artist who specializes in goddess art, Sharon and her family live in San Diego County, California. Her artwork will be featured on the cover of Doreen Virtue's new book, When I Find Myself in Times of Trouble: A Guide to the Ascended Masters and Archangels (Hay House, 2003). Sharon's goal is to help women recognize the goddess within themselves through her artwork.

Sharon has taught at CorelWorld, a national software conference, for the last three years. She won the 1998 California Computer Expo Digital Art Contest—Grand Prize—and in 2000, won the Corel World Design Contest in the Abstract Category.

Artwork by Marianne Plumridge

Card Name: Consult an Expert

Marianne is an artist who uses whimsical fantasy to create images of fun and beauty in her work. This often leads to unexpected elements and pairings in her paintings: unicorns and dolphins; Pegasus and dolphins; gentle goddess figures; mystical animals—usually from the ocean; fantasy koalas from her native Australia; little green dragons; fairies; and of course, mermaids. She creates things of sweetness and light that lift one from the cares of everyday life—if only for a little while—and bring a smile. Marianne currently lives in Rhode Island with her soulmate and husband, fellow fantasy and science fiction artist, Bob Eggleton.

Artwork by Ann Van Eps

Card Name: Alchemy

Ann paints through the eyes of her inner child, and we experience the vibrancy and wonder of creation that we all felt as children. Ann was surrounded by the free-flowing creativity of her father, Robert Van Eps, pianist, composer and arranger for the movie industry. Ann's father died in 1986 and passed the baton of creativity to her. One night in August of 1987, she was jolted from meditation by a ball of light that struck her in the center of her body and floated her in a beautiful loving light. Thus began a series of dreams in which visions to be painted came with detailed instructions on color brushes and techniques. When she put the information to work, it was as though she had always known how. Ann had no formal art training and had never painted prior to this. Ann's artwork has just published the first in a series of children's books, A Fairy's Tail. She also does many benefits for dolphins, whales, and wolves. A portion of the proceeds from the sale of her greeting cards is contributed to the Save the Earth Foundation.

Artwork by Jim Warren

Card Names: Friendship; Make a Wish; Stay Optimistic; You're Being Helped

A self-taught painter, Jim Warren defies artistic category. A Los Angeles newspaper described him as "somewhere between Dali and Rockwell." And although Jim's style is hard to pin down, his flair for the unique—yes, even the unusual—never detracts from the impact, spirit, and emotion that he packs into every piece. Jim's artistic career hit the fast track when he won first place at the prestigious Westwood Art show in 1975. He subsequently took additional awards, and then in 1980 blasted into art's highest circles by winning the Grammy Award for Best Album (cover) for his work on Bob Seger's mega-hit Against the Wind. Today, Jim is considered one of the best cover artists in the country, and his work has graced hundreds of book covers, album covers, and movie posters. Several years ago, Jim committed his talents to promoting environmental themes and issues. One recent example of Jim's—Earth, Love it or Lose it—is a nationwide smash itself. Other environmental works typify his theme of harmony and coexistence between man and nature. "Each person sees something different in my paintings that relates specifically to them. That, to me, is what art is all about."
